

BOSTON AMERICAN

TO DEATH ON KING EVE

G.O.P. Chief Sure of N.E.

JOHN D. M. HAMILTON
Republican National Chairman

"Landon Will Sweep New England"

"I'm Glad Democrats Are Aiding Us"

"We Invite All Patriots to Back Landon"

Today in The Boston Evening American

AMUSEMENTS	22	FLOYD GIBBONS	29
ARTIST LARKS	18	GIRL ABOUT TOWN	23
BRIDGE (Mrs. Culbertson)	13	JOE PALOOKA	23
CLASSIFIED ADVERT.	14, 28	LORELA PARSONS	23
COMICS	26, 31	MARTHA LEE	23
CROSSWORD PUZZLE	21	O. O. MONTYRE	23
EDITORIAL	26	RADIO PROGRAMS	23
EDWIN C. HILL	26	ROBERT E. ROGERS	23
ELITE ROBINSON	19	SEYMOUR SHOREMAN	23
FASHIONS	13, 15	SOCIETY	23
FINANCIAL	23, 24	SPORTS	16, 17, 18, 19

BOSTON AMERICAN

(NEW ENGLAND'S GREATEST EVENING NEWSPAPER)

The only Boston evening newspaper with three direct news services—Associated Press, International News Service and Universal Service

VOL. XXXIII—NO. 100 Copyright, 1936, by N. E. Newspaper Publisher Co. FRIDAY, JULY 17, 1936 PRICE 2 CENTS

U.S. Woman Holds Fate of King's Assailant

HAMILTON, HERE TO SPEAK, TELLS LONDON SWEET IN N.E.

'U.S. WOMAN' HOLDS KING PLOT KEY

BULLETIN
Copyright, 1936, by the Associated Press
London, July 17.—The fate of George Andrew McMahon, middle-aged, crippled writer, who aimed a pistol yesterday at King Edward, may lie with the still mysterious "woman in gray" who, witnesses said, knocked the prisoner's revolver from his hand. It was believed she was able to tell the true story of McMahon's attempt, but the police did not make her name public and they were said to be abiding her from public contacts until the prisoner appears in court next week. Rumors circulated that the woman is an American.

London, July 17 (INS).—Apparently suspecting the attempted assassination of King Edward near Buckingham Palace yesterday was a premeditated plot with a group of conspirators possibly involved, Scotland Yard appealed for public aid in probing dramatic incident.

As the monarch resumed his state duties, calm and unperturbed by his narrow escape, Britain's famous crime investigation bureau issued the following communique: "In connection with the incident during yesterday's procession, the police request any persons in the immediate vicinity of the man arrested and who witnessed the occurrence communicate with New Scotland Yard as soon as possible."

A spokesman said the appeal was issued because "conflicting reports" regarding the incident, but Scotland Yard officials were reluctant to disclose just what they hope to learn from witnesses. It was apparent, however, that Scotland Yard may not be completely satisfied that George Andrew McMahon, the crippled journalist who leaped a loaded pistol at King Edward as the monarch was returning from a military ceremony in Hyde Park, attempted to carry out his deed single-handed.

Deputies Vote Arms Seizure

Paris, July 17 (AP).—The French Chamber of Deputies voted today by the wide margin of 484 to 55, backed by Premier Leon Blum's Leftist government, the measure will clamp strict government control on the nation's large armament plants.

Last night the chamber voted 430 to 111 to transfer control of the Bank of France from private hands to the government.

Edouard Daladier, minister of defense, urged passage of the arms bill and vigorously attacked war profiteers.

U. S. FROBE CITED
There will be "no recourse and no appeal," he warned, against the government decision on munitions exports by the state supervised factories.

The United States Senate expression of the arms industry was cited by Daladier as an example of the international importance of nationalization of warfare equipment production in ships flying tropical waters.

Sailors occupied four freighters "La Havre Harbor today in a fresh outbreak of French strikes. WORKERS QUIT
Butcher boys and employees of three tobacco warehouses in Paris also quit work demanding application of the new social and labor laws. The sailors asked improved quarters in ships flying tropical waters.

BOSTON MAN WILLS $1000, ENDS LIFE

On the eve of his wedding to a New York girl, Alexander J. R. Ferguson, 46, Boston securities salesman, Naval Reserve officer, lecturer and radio commentator, plunged to his death from the sixteenth floor of a New York hotel.

Ferguson, attached to the office of A. C. Allyn & Co., 30 Federal street, left a note expressing his love for Jocelyn Peters of Brooklyn, N. Y., the girl he expected to marry.

He had been a guest at the hotel since last Wednesday, giving his address in Federal street, Boston, his office location.

He was originally assigned to a room on the 11th floor, but at his own request was moved to a room on the 16th floor, from which he hurled to his death late last night.

Investigation here found his address listed in a Commonwealth avenue, Back Bay building apartment building but it was learned he had not lived there for nearly two years.

His present home was located in an exclusive Brooklyn apartment building in the Coolidge Corner section, to which he had moved from another well known apartment building in the same area only a few weeks ago.

Friends said he made frequent trips to New York.

Straw Vote Results White Leads Brann In Maine Poll

MASSACHUSETTS
Still sweeping high through the state over their Democratic opponents, youthful Henry Cabot Lodge, Jr., and John W. Haigis, respective candidates for United States Senate and the governorship, remained far out in front today in the Boston Evening American-Sunday Advertiser straw ballot.

The third day of the balloting left the New Deal banner-toters far in the lead, repeating the surge of the two previous days.

These are the results of the first three days in the Massachusetts balloting with mail votes included:

For United States Senator:
Lodge 473
Curry 494

For Governor:
Haigis 807
Wheeler 498

The third day of the straw balloting took in Worcester, the third day by a comfortable margin.

MAINE
Senator Wallace H. White jumped out ahead of his Democratic opponent at the third day in the Boston Evening American-Sunday Advertiser straw ballot, pushing the Democratic New Deal candidate to the rear.

Where White, in the first two days of balloting, had trailed Governor Louis J. Brann by a few votes in the race for the United States Senate, the Republican contender forged into the lead on the third day by a comfortable margin.

3 TO 1 LEAD
Maine Lewis O. Barrows, Republican candidate for governor, maintained a practically 2 to 1 lead over F. Harold Dubord, the Democratic candidate, as the straw ballot automobile swung through the state.

Continued on Page 8, Column 2

$2500 REWARD ADDED IN WALTHAM KILLING

By a mystery donor, an added reward of $2500 was offered today for apprehension of the Waltham Watch Company watchman slayers—bringing the total of rewards to $3500.

The new reward posting by the unnamed donor came after police had cleared Albert Mallet of California street, Newton, of any connection with the case and had said that his being suspected in the case was because of a story by an Irish wife.

Mallet was arrested at gunpoint early today by Waltham police, across the town line from his home and was turned over to Probation Officer Walter L. Lawler of Middlesex Superior Court on a charge of violation of probation in a non-support case.

DIVER SPEAKS CLUES
Afterward he was questioned in connection with the slaying of Harry E. Bradley, the Shoyetold factory watchman, but Mallet's alibi was checked and found to be correct.

Meanwhile today, Fred Wallace, Continued on Page 8, Column 2

JAPAN BOOSTS NAVY PROGRAM

Tokyo, July 17 (AP).—A five-year naval program costing 2,000,000,000 yen ($500,000,000) was reported by two Japanese newspapers today.

The program includes construction of at least two capital ships and extensive expansion of the naval air force in 1937-38, the papers declared.

Balances and Receipts
Washington, July 17.—Today's Treasury balance, $428,831,834, U. S. Customs receipts, $12,387,494.

WEATHER
Boston and vicinity continued fair weather with slight temperature change tonight and Saturday; gentle to moderate northerly winds.

TEMPERATURES
BOSTON.....70
NEW YORK.....72
WASHINGTON.....74
CHICAGO.....76
PHILADELPHIA.....78
BALTIMORE.....76
CINCINNATI.....74
ST. LOUIS.....72
KANSAS CITY.....70
DENVER.....68
SALT LAKE CITY.....66
PORTLAND.....64
SEASIDE.....62
SAN FRANCISCO.....60

CROWDS HAIL G.O.P. HEAD IN BOSTON

Tonight's talk by John D. Hamilton will carry by radio to principal New England cities and towns, through station WRAC of Boston, WEAN of Providence, WORC of Worcester, WLBZ of Lowell and Lawrence, WICC of Bridgeport, WNH of New Bedford, WEEA of Manchester, N. H., and WLBZ of Bangor, Me. The time is to 8 p. m., Daylight Saving Time.

By JAMES F. DOOLING
Boston Evening American Staff Writer

Fighting John D. M. Hamilton, Republican national committee chairman, came to Boston today "tremendously happy" over the way New England is responding to the presidential campaign of Governor Alfred M. Landon of Kansas.

"I'm going to be able to tell Governor Landon and Colonel Kinn that they're not only going to be able to carry New England," he said, "but they're going to carry it with the greatest majority a national ticket has ever received."

Hamilton, who is just finishing up five days of one of the most Continued on Page 3, Column 1

East Boston Boy Believed Drowned

Joseph Pollino, 8, of Marion street, East Boston, missing since Tuesday afternoon, was believed to have drowned while swimming at World War Memorial Park, East Boston, according to police today.

The boy was last seen entering the water by his brother, Vincent, 12, and two friends, Roy Antonucci, 10, also of Marion street, and John Abate, 8, of Paris street.

More Troops Pour Into Holy Land
Jerusalem, July 17 (Gawish Telegraph Agency).—The British general in Palestine, Roy Amery, said the greatest strength since the World War, was today further reinforced by a heavy regiment, the Eleventh Hussars from Cairo.

G.O.P. CHAIRMAN ON RADIO TONIGHT; TALKS AT LUNCH

WUNDERLAND
DERBY NITE tomorrow!

might aid in saving him, state troopers from the Natick and Frammingham barracks who had know-granted.

'Yard' Grills Reds Guard Over King's Increased

By DAVID P. SENTNER

International News Service Staff Correspondent

London, July 17.—Showing no signs of nervousness, King Edward VIII arose at his usual early hour today and read some congratulatory messages he received from all parts of the world upon his escape from death at the hands of an assassin.

Later, at York House, the King discussed with the Duke of Norfolk, arrangements for his coronation next May. The Duke of York, brother of the monarch, was among other visitors received by the King.

Scotland Yard meanwhile continues its investigation among Communists, radicals and other political extremists. The detectives sought a possible political plot against the king, while his personal advisers urged him to keep well protected at all times.

But the king's first care was to read messages that poured in from his well-wishers.

Although Edward has adopted the attitude that the seriousness of yesterday's incident has been exaggerated, he was described as extremely pleased with the world-wide expressions of thankfulness for his escape.

U. S. Thankful

He was particularly delighted with numerous cables from American well-wishers.

The King had no official outside engagements listed for today, and was expected to occupy himself at York House and Buckingham Palace with state business.

Though it was significant that there was no criticism of the police protection arrangements made for the King in voluminous descriptions of the affair in London's evening newspapers, police chiefs held a prolonged session early this morning fully reviewing all plans for safeguarding royal persons.

It was understood police executives agreed that yesterday's incident, in which George Andrew McMahon, a crippled Scottish journalist, pointed a loaded revolver at the King but was subdued before he could do any damage, was a blunder attempt.

They decided the attempt was made by a person, probably deranged, to direct attention toward supposed grievances. McMahon, it developed today, changed his name three years ago from Jerome Bannon.

Tighter Guard

The police executives also decided the present system of guarding the King can be considerably tightened and improved, especially along the line of stricter supervision of Edward's frequent incognito walks in the vicinity of Buckingham Palace and York House.

Moreover, they agreed to do something about his tendency to get ahead of his protective escort when off.

Sifting of a dozen or more claims showed that Andrew Gordon Dick, a special policeman, and a French-Polish salesman were the men responsible for knocking McMahon's gun into the roadway when the latter fired.

King, at the head of a procession, approached Buckingham Palace after presenting one color to three life guard regiments in Hyde Park. "Some silly idiot here," he said, "and I knocked it out of his hand."

He then turned to McMahon, who was the man who fired the shot, and said: "The whole idea seems stupid to me. Even now I cannot believe it has happened."

Sanity Test

McMahon, who was charged with possession of a weapon with intent to endanger life, will undergo mental examination during his eight-day jail remand.

At the conclusion of that period only crown officers will be empowered to say whether he will be released with attempted suicide or a threat against the life of the King. After his arrest McMahon came from Ireland 40 years ago.

The Bannigans have two sons, Jerome and Patrick who is a priest in a Dublin church, and one daughter, now in the Goven District of Glasgow.

"Jerry seldom mixed with the youngsters in school," his father continued. "That I think, gave him an unusual outlook on life. From childhood he suffered from a foot affliction. Consequently he read a lot—too much, I think. He left home some years ago and we corresponded for a time, but the link of communication was broken."

"He was something of an individualist," his father continued. "As a boy he was something of an individualist."

His book was seldom out of his hand and he did not participate in the rough-and-tumble school life. He was just a serious-minded young boy. We drifted apart after leaving school."

He was just a serious-minded young boy. We drifted apart after leaving school."

Funeral Plans Supplant Bridal Joy

A. J. R. FERGUSON Killed on Wedding Eve

Wills $1000 To Fiancee, Ends Life

Continued from First Page

trips to New York to see the young woman he intended to wed.

Miss Peters was questioned by police of the 2d St. street precinct after her identity became known but her story to police could not be learned at an early hour today.

Following the questioning, Miss Peters left the station and could not be located. At 1st home, members of the family said she was out and that they did not know when she would return.

That Ferguson intended to marry Miss Peters within the next few days was learned here today.

From a reliable source, which furnished the identification of the man, Ferguson was described as a 30-year-old man, of medium build, with dark hair, wearing a suit and tie.

He was described as a 30-year-old man, of medium build, with dark hair, wearing a suit and tie.

He was described as a 30-year-old man, of medium build, with dark hair, wearing a suit and tie.

He was described as a 30-year-old man, of medium build, with dark hair, wearing a suit and tie.

He was described as a 30-year-old man, of medium build, with dark hair, wearing a suit and tie.

He was described as a 30-year-old man, of medium build, with dark hair, wearing a suit and tie.

He was described as a 30-year-old man, of medium build, with dark hair, wearing a suit and tie.

He was described as a 30-year-old man, of medium build, with dark hair, wearing a suit and tie.

He was described as a 30-year-old man, of medium build, with dark hair, wearing a suit and tie.

He was described as a 30-year-old man, of medium build, with dark hair, wearing a suit and tie.

He was described as a 30-year-old man, of medium build, with dark hair, wearing a suit and tie.

He was described as a 30-year-old man, of medium build, with dark hair, wearing a suit and tie.

Wheeled to Death Chair Borgia Executed At Sing Sing

By DAMON RYUNTON
(Copyright, 1936, Universal Service)

Sing Sing Prison, N. Y., July 17.—The Long Island "Borgia" Mary Frances Creighton, a flabby woman as paralyzed with fear she has to be brought into the death chamber in a wheel chair, and Everett Applegate, her poison-partner in the murder of Applegate's wife, are none too deftly exterminated by the State of New York in the electric chair.

Something seems wrong with the electrode that attaches to the right knee, and as four old Robert Elliott, the executioner, turns the current into the body of the woman that has waited from 185 to 133 flaccid pounds, then into the almost defiant Applegate, clouds of smoke arise, and there is a distinct odor of burning flesh.

Miss Creighton is pronounced dead in three minutes. Applegate in four. She is given two shocks. Applegate three.

Applegate, a little man with blood hair, chamber quickly up to the chair after the inert mass that was Mary Creighton, who had been seduced upon a white straiter.

"Gentlemen, may I say something before I die? I am a poor fellow, and I hope I will have mercy on Martin W. Littleton of Nassau County."

Martin W. Littleton is the assistant attorney who prosecuted Mrs. Creighton for her conviction for giving arsenic to Applegate's wife, Ada, at Baldwin, Long Island, where seven members of the Creighton family lived a strange jumbled up life of human existence in five rooms.

Mrs. Creighton, whose confession that Applegate forced her to give Mrs. Applegate the arsenic, was not even in the wheel chair when she was wheeled into the death chamber.

She lay inert in her cell for weeks before her death, never walking a step, eating no food, and saying little.

A few hours before her death she embraced her children, and was baptized into the church by Father John P. McCaffery, of the prison staff.

She has been one of the great confessions in criminal justice, made four different confessions since her arrest.

Her husband was also acquitted. Elliott, the executioner, is in a control room separate from the execution chamber itself. This control room has a door with two glass panels in it that overlook the chair, at the executioner can see how his work is progressing.

He stands at the chair pressing through his eyes at the guards adjusting the straps, apparently

20-Yr. Term Looms for Gunman

London, July 17 (AP).—Under the present charge facing the king's assassin—that of unlawful possession of a loaded revolver with intent to endanger life and property—the prisoner faces a maximum penalty of 20 years imprisonment.

However, one official said the charge may be made more or less severe.

Aiming a gun at the sovereign is punishable by transportation overseas or imprisonment with flogging.

Not a sound came from her, but a few of them are looking at two women.

The matrons avert their eyes, one of them hiding her face against the sleeve of a big prison attendant next to her.

Father McCaffery turns his eyes away from the spectacle. Warden Laws is looking at the floor.

There is only a slight noise as Elliott runs the first 220 volts of electric current into the body of the woman.

Her right hand, tightly clenched under the straps, around the wrist, comes turning over an eighth of a turn.

The hand keeps turning, then is still, and a gasp arises from the right knee.

There is a brief pause, and the group around Mrs. Creighton still stand there as Dr. C. S. Sweet, the chief physician of the prison steps forward with a microphone.

There is a brief pause, and the group around Mrs. Creighton still stand there as Dr. C. S. Sweet, the chief physician of the prison steps forward with a microphone.

There is a brief pause, and the group around Mrs. Creighton still stand there as Dr. C. S. Sweet, the chief physician of the prison steps forward with a microphone.

There is a brief pause, and the group around Mrs. Creighton still stand there as Dr. C. S. Sweet, the chief physician of the prison steps forward with a microphone.

There is a brief pause, and the group around Mrs. Creighton still stand there as Dr. C. S. Sweet, the chief physician of the prison steps forward with a microphone.

There is a brief pause, and the group around Mrs. Creighton still stand there as Dr. C. S. Sweet, the chief physician of the prison steps forward with a microphone.

There is a brief pause, and the group around Mrs. Creighton still stand there as Dr. C. S. Sweet, the chief physician of the prison steps forward with a microphone.

There is a brief pause, and the group around Mrs. Creighton still stand there as Dr. C. S. Sweet, the chief physician of the prison steps forward with a microphone.

There is a brief pause, and the group around Mrs. Creighton still stand there as Dr. C. S. Sweet, the chief physician of the prison steps forward with a microphone.

There is a brief pause, and the group around Mrs. Creighton still stand there as Dr. C. S. Sweet, the chief physician of the prison steps forward with a microphone.

There is a brief pause, and the group around Mrs. Creighton still stand there as Dr. C. S. Sweet, the chief physician of the prison steps forward with a microphone.

There is a brief pause, and the group around Mrs. Creighton still stand there as Dr. C. S. Sweet, the chief physician of the prison steps forward with a microphone.

There is a brief pause, and the group around Mrs. Creighton still stand there as Dr. C. S. Sweet, the chief physician of the prison steps forward with a microphone.

There is a brief pause, and the group around Mrs. Creighton still stand there as Dr. C. S. Sweet, the chief physician of the prison steps forward with a microphone.

MISS JOCKLYN PETERS Fiancee Willed $1000 in Tragedy

$3500 Newton Fire
A fire broke out in the Newton, Mass. section of Newton today, which damaged estimated at $3500.

It was described as a 30-year-old man, of medium build, with dark hair, wearing a suit and tie.

It was described as a 30-year-old man, of medium build, with dark hair, wearing a suit and tie.

It was described as a 30-year-old man, of medium build, with dark hair, wearing a suit and tie.

It was described as a 30-year-old man, of medium build, with dark hair, wearing a suit and tie.

It was described as a 30-year-old man, of medium build, with dark hair, wearing a suit and tie.

It was described as a 30-year-old man, of medium build, with dark hair, wearing a suit and tie.

It was described as a 30-year-old man, of medium build, with dark hair, wearing a suit and tie.

It was described as a 30-year-old man, of medium build, with dark hair, wearing a suit and tie.

It was described as a 30-year-old man, of medium build, with dark hair, wearing a suit and tie.

It was described as a 30-year-old man, of medium build, with dark hair, wearing a suit and tie.

Shepard On Sale SATURDAY at 9:30 A.M.

Where You ALWAYS Shop With Confidence

Men's COOL Shorts

Shirts Sox 99c

Priced To Start A Buying Spree!

VAT-DYED BROADCLOTH SHORTS, guaranteed not to run or fade. Full cut, well-made, with elastic in waistband. Sizes 30 to 44. Each 19c

RIBBED COTTON ATHLETIC SHORTS, made of fine combed yarn. Sizes 34 to 46. Each 19c

RAYON, RAYON-AND-LISLE, COTTON SOX, in circular and horizontal stripes, checks, checked and all-over patterns. Cool, pastel shades and more conservative darker tones of navy, grey, brown and black. Sizes 10 to 12. Each 19c

MEN'S SHOP-STREET FLOOR

Shepard OPEN SATURDAY Closed Monday Store Hours 9:30 A. M. to 5:00 P. M.

Where You ALWAYS Shop With Confidence

Another Special Purchase!

Dressmaker Cotton Swim Suits

• White Linings of Wool Jersey or Smooth Acetate!

3.95

More of Those "Seaworthy" and "Seaworthy" Suits That Sold Out So Early Last Saturday!

• Hatter Necklines! Pantie Styles! Skirted Styles! Sizes 34 to 42!

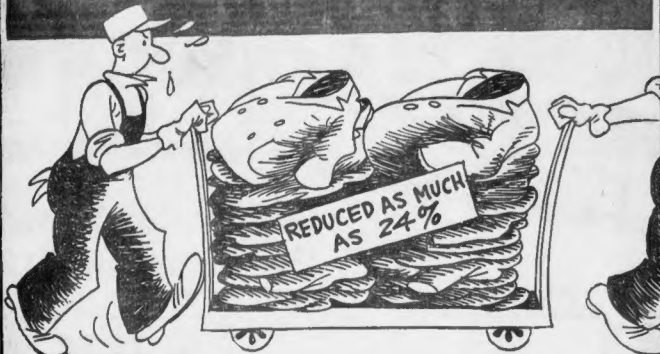

Flower Prints, Bubble Patterns, Javanese-type Plaids, Stripes, Plaids, Leaves, and Acorn Patterns. You'll recognize on sight their priced way below actual value.

Shepard-Hy-Hy-Six SECOND FLOOR

High Get Ready for the Big Sale!

MOVING DAY

for all BOND two trouser suits

TODAY AND TOMORROW, we are house-cleaning in a big way. Every 2 trouser suit* in the store is tagged for a hasty exit. Even our new arrivals of last week "take the rap". We permit no hangovers from one season to the next, so you can bet that there's no pussy-footing about price-cuts. This is a Sale worth going for — and as usual, early-birds will carry away the prize buys.

22⁸⁵ takes the cream of this season's 2 trouser suits regularly to $30

*Tweed, Tropicals and other Summer suits not included

27⁸⁵ does the trick on 2 trouser suits from our regular selection up to $35

"Charge it" the Bond way

Make the most of our Sale with this popular way to buy good clothes. Pay weekly or twice a month. No large lump payments, no monthly bills — and no extra charge for this Bond service.

BOND CLOTHES

Member Servicemen's Stores

Corner Washington and Essex

OPEN SATURDAY UNTIL 6 P. M. DURING JULY AND AUGUST
PROVIDENCE—165 WEYBOSSET ST.

THIRD PARTY LEADER SPEAKS SUNDAY AT CONVENTION

By WILLIAM S. NEAL

International News Service Staff Correspondent
Cleveland, Ohio, July 17—Leaders of the Townsend old-age pension movement moved forward boldly today in their third party presidential fight, confident of their position and ready to crush all discordant elements in the far-flung organization.

Dr. Francis E. Townsend formally declared his support of Rep. William Lemke, presidential candidate of the Union Party, as an aftermath of the agreement between him, Father Charles E. Coughlin and the Rev. Gerald L. K. Smith for a joint campaign.

With seeming assurance the gray-haired leader of millions of Townsendites expressed the opinion that Lemke, who is to speak to the Townsend convention on Sunday, will embrace the $200-a-month pension ideal.

The political battle in the convention between the Townsend Democrats and third party supporters reached its crescendo yesterday when Father Coughlin, a most popular speaker at the National Union for Social Justice, brought delegates to their feet with a verbal pledge to support the principles of the New Union Party.

NO CONVENTION PLEDGE
Dr. Townsend reiterated, however, that the convention itself will not be asked to endorse Lemke. In reply to questions, he said:

"I retracted the action of the delegates to stand when Father Coughlin asked for a pledge of support an expression of personal opinion."

Bitter towards the Roosevelt administration because of the congressional investigation and its policies, Dr. Townsend defied the Republican party as well. He postponed a threat to oust Governor Smith, recently a Townsend candidate for the Democratic senatorial nomination in Ohio, from the board of directors because of his personal attack on the Reverend Gerald Smith during a defense of the Roosevelt administration.

ATTACKS AID
Denying that he would seek Smith's dismissal because he supported the Democratic administration, Townsend charged the Ohioan with "trying to throw a spit into this peaceful convention." Driven to his feet by the speech, he said, also turned him against Smith, who is vice-president of the movement.

The Rev. Gerald Smith, heir of leadership of the "share-the-wealth" society and Townsend's right bower, denied Governor Smith's charges that he was the tool of outside interests. Governor Smith informed that Townsend planned to force him out of the board, said:

"The board of directors, under a dominated and subsidized leadership, can get me out. I have no authority to remove me from the advisory committee. I have an intention of severing my connection with the Townsend movement."

FREE SPEECH ISSUES
Chairman Frank A. Atchuck of California said that "there will be no more free speech in the convention" but immediately corrected himself to declare that free speech would be granted, he added, had been continued until Sunday.

Dr. Townsend said that before the convention is ended he would complete his "democratization" plan by transferring control of O. A. R. P. Ltd. to the new Townsend recovery plan with the national advisory committee holding it in trust.

PROTEST IN VAIN
Nelson, however, said that he did not expect the plan to be adopted. He protested in vain against the action of Convention Secretary Frank Dyer in refusing to permit him to circulate a statement of the plan to delegates in the convention hall.

Despite the rising pledge of delegates for the principles of the new union party, a resolution had been adopted declaring against partisan politics and inviting President Roosevelt, Governor Alfred M. Landon and Norman Thomas, presidential candidates of the Democratic, Republican and Socialist parties, to speak.

Governor Landon was said to have sent a polite declination, while Roosevelt was on a Presidential Roosevelt trip to Maine. No word had been received from Thomas early today, officials said.

Mrs. Kipling Better
London, July 17 (AP)—Mrs. Rudyard Kipling, widow of the author, was reported today by Midland Hospital to be making good progress toward recovery from a slight illness.

Straddler

Norfolk, Va., July 17 (AP)—Robert Smith, 16, took the initial step, but the fire department took the next. Smith decided to sleep from one sloping roof to the next, two stories up. He slipped and from his rooster-like position found the next step impossible. Firemen rescued him, weak from the strain of his straddling.

Roosevelt Yacht Just Lazing Along

Aboard Schooner Liberty in Bay of Fundy, July 17 (AP)—President Roosevelt, aboard the yacht Seawanna, coasted along today toward Cape Sable, N. S., under the impetus of a light breeze, almost 24 hours out of Seal Harbor, Me. The wind was proving a little indifferent to the fact that the President was on a holiday, but all hands, including the Chief Executive, appeared to be enjoying the utmost his most spectacular cruise under canvas since he entered the White House. The Seawanna was still more than 20 miles from the cape in his cruise across the Bay of Fundy. There was a moderate sea and fair weather.

During the night the wind fell and the Seawanna rolled heavily to a ground swell, as did the Liberty, accompanying the President's yacht. The temperature was around 50 and all hands slept under heavy blankets.

Mexicans Seek Light

Mexico City, July 17 (AP)—Four million Mexicans looked to President Lazaro Cardenas today to end a strike of electric power company workers and restore electric light service.

HEAT Clings to WEST

Chicago, July 17 (AP)—Already resigned to drought losses calculated in the hundreds of millions of dollars, farmers of the nation's corn-belt belt looked in vain for a break in the adverse conditions today. Forecasters, however reported:

"No general relief sighted."

Heat deaths, although reduced in rate by more moderate temperatures in the hard-hit States of Michigan, Wisconsin and Illinois, neared 4,000 in the nation.

Scattered showers and slightly lower temperatures, but no inclusive alleviation of aridity, were predicted for parts of Missouri, Illinois and Indiana.

At Des Moines, Iowa, Junior Meteorologist, S. E. Decker, said reports indicated drought and heat would reduce that State's probable corn yield a bushel per acre each day. Iowa's death list for the current heat wave mounted to 400, more than twice as many heat-induced deaths as had occurred in the State since 1922. Scattered showers were predicted, but of insufficient intensity to reduce the costly high temperatures.

Crop damage in Missouri already was estimated at $100,000,000 in a crop bulletin which added: "Much early corn is damaged beyond recovery. The great areas the crop is probably as least half ruined."

Yesterday was the 13th consecutive day of 100-degree temperatures in most parts of the state, allied only by rains at Houston, in the southern part, and by showers in Texas. Today's outlook was for continued heat.

BANK SUSPECT EXTRADITED

Claude H. Knowlton, arrested in Reno, Nevada, after being missing since May 28, is expected to be returned here Monday to face charges of embezzlement from the Merchants National Bank, Salem.

As this announcement came from his attorney, J. Edgar Hoover, head of the bureau of investigation, stated in Washington that federal agents had recovered $22,217.80 of the $25,750 which Knowlton is accused of embezzling in an indictment returned here.

Hoover said stocks and bonds and an auto, valued at all $20,000, were recovered at Reno. The remaining $330 consisted of cash, jewelry and cash sent by Knowlton from San Francisco to his home here.

Court Assistant Wins Fight for Pay

James A. Buckley, whose appointment as clerical assistant in Charleston district court by Clerk James J. Mullin was not recognized by Judge Charles S. Sullivan, today was victorious when the city law department ruled he was entitled to salary.

Buckley collected $26.58 in payment of his services, retroactive to May 22, at which time he had been appointed by Mullin for the second time.

His original appointment came on Nov. 18, 1935, but Buckley said he would not attempt to collect his salary between November and May, although he worked during those months gratis.

NATIONAL FOOD CHECK-UP CAMPAIGN

Is YOUR Refrigerator COLD Enough?

CHECK UP NOW!

Which Tells Whether Your Refrigerator Safely Protects Foods

Yours Without Charge! No Obligation! Nothing To Buy! HURRY!

50 degrees is the Danger Line!....

USE THE COLD - GAUGE TO SEE IF YOUR REFRIGERATOR IS BELOW 50°!

- BECAUSE Above 50° Foods SPOIL!
- BECAUSE Spoiled Foods Endanger Health!
- BECAUSE Spoiled Food cannot always be detected by sight, taste or smell!

Meets All 5 Standards For Refrigerator BUYING and PROVES IT!

1. Lower Operating Cost! An electric meter proves how little current Meter-Miser uses.

2. Safer Food Protection! Built-in food safety indicator gives VISIBLE proof of Safety Zone temperature.

3. Faster Freezing—More Ice! The Thermo Gauge proves Frigidaire's ability to freeze more cubes faster.

4. More Usability! Wider, roomier, handier to use. Saves work and steps.

5. Five-Year Protection! Mechanical unit protected for 5 years against service expense.

Full Family Size FRIGIDAIRE SPECIAL $147 No Money Down $15c A DAY

At All Kane Stores On Kane's Exclusive Meter Ice Plan

Our 15-Store Buying Power Means Bigger Savings

740 WASHINGTON STREET, BOSTON

Look for this KANE'S logo

Shop at the Kane Store Nearest Your Home

MALDEN—9 Dermoth St. WYDE PARK—125 Ave. 50. CAMBRIDGE—405 Mass. Ave. QUINCY—144 Hancock St. FRANKLIN—125 Irving St. LYNN—219 Union St. BROOKTON—215 Main St. LAWRENCE—100 Main St. LAWRENCE—100 Main St.

OPEN SATURDAY TILL 9 P. M.

DISMISSAL SIGHT FOR G-MEN FOES

Washington, July 17 (U.S.)—Treasury secret service agents who sniping activities against J. Edgar Hoover and his G-men have caused a startling upheaval in government circles, are facing dismissal.

Thorough investigation of the Federal Bureau of Investigation was launched by the Treasury Department as public disclosure of their activities forced a halt to such undercover operations.

Formal apologies to Attorney General Cummings and Hoover were being prepared by the Treasury Department.

AGENT CALLED IN

Grady L. Bonbright, Secret Service agent at St. Paul, was summoned here by W. H. McCleynolds, administrative assistant to Secretary of the Treasury, McLaughlin, to explain why witnesses to the shooting by G-men of Eddie Green, Dillinger's brother, were subjected to questioning by Secret Service men.

Other agents were expected to be called.

Joseph Murphy, assistant chief of secret service, was ordered to go to Washington to be questioned in connection with the inquiry.

Thomas J. Callahan, secret service agent in charge at Chicago, also was expected to be called to appear, although Treasury officials said no summons had yet been issued.

MOTIVE SOUGHT

All concerned stated the unauthorized investigation by secret service agents was unknown to William H. McLaughlin, chief of the Secret Service, who said: "If any investigation has been conducted it was without my knowledge or instruction."

Disclosure that agents of the service had been seeking evidence derogatory to Hoover, chief of the bureau of investigation, and his men, shook both Justice and Treasury Departments to their foundations and started an inquiry as to the motive.

Identity of the persons who ordered the Secret Service agents to pry into affairs of the G-men, with which they have no relations, was being sought.

Attorney-General Cummings was reported ready to ask for a complete investigation of the whole affair so that responsibility for the sniping can be definitely fixed.

Senator McKellar (D.), of Tennessee, member of the appropriations committee and who fought Hoover's requests for increase of investigation funds, will be asked if he can shed any light upon the case, it was stated.

Meanwhile dismissal faces those who participated in the unauthorized investigation, officials said.

Attorney-General Cummings, standing firmly behind Hoover, said:

"Anyone who thinks he can get at Hoover by subterfuge methods must remember he must get at me first."

"Mr. Hoover is a remarkably efficient man who has done a wonderfully efficient job."

G. O. P. Asks Cash From Democrat

New Bedford, July 17.—Postmaster James A. Murphy is not expected to pay much attention to the letter he received from the Republican national committee asking for a contribution to finance the national convention.

It seems that Murphy is a Democrat and Roosevelt appointee.

Fall Downstairs Kills Woman, 70

Pittsburgh, July 17.—Injuries suffered in a fall downstairs in her home in Newton street proved fatal to Mrs. Katherine Kennedy, 70, at Burkhart Hospital.

Puneral services are to be held tomorrow at St. Bernard's Church with burial in St. Bernard's cemetery.

Fear Meningitis

Patrolman David T. Mortimer and Laurence L. Loughlin, attached to the Back Bay station, were at their homes today, under surveillance of city physicians, after they took a man to the hospital who was suffering from pneumonia-meningitis.

Comfort

Pittsburgh, July 17 (AP)—Register of Will John M. Hinton asked County Commissioners for $3800 to help "make things comfortable" for couples seeking marriage licenses. Hinton, 12, twelve two-cushion sofas, fifteen arm chairs, two rugs, one cotter, and two Venetian blinds.

CASH!

$300
ON LISA
in a hurry!
CALL
MISS RAE
Liberty 7342
INDUSTRIAL BANKERS
SEVEN ENTIRE METROPOLITAN AREA

'Suffering' Bared by Wife

By ARTHUR J. QUINN
Boston Evening American Staff Correspondent

Auburn, Maine, July 17.—More details of the sufferings of a woman, who is said to be the wife of her college professor—the man she dreamed would be the ideal husband—were related here by Mrs. Gertrude B. Anthony in her 300,000 word against Dr. Alfred Williams Anthony, former professor of biblical literature at Bates College.

Mrs. Anthony in her suit charges her "dream husband" is without a dollar of her money, which she says she gave over to him during their 17 years of married life. The wealthy woman's recitation of the events of a married life she describes as "a bitter disappointment."

The wealthy woman's recitation of the events of a married life she describes as "a bitter disappointment."

"TRIED TO KICK HER BACK"

Attorney McLaughlin was counsel for Mrs. Anthony when her husband gave her the scandalous property and money totaling over $13,000 he declares was final settlement of all claims she might have against him after their separation. McLaughlin testified the payment was made by a professor not as a settlement of all claims by her with but as a move to win her back.

"What can I do but the attorney asked Mr. Anthony as pleading during the conference, 'I told him the only way he could hope to win her back was to make full and generous financial restitution to restore the money he had of her.'"

He testified that Dr. Anthony then gave his wife a check for the $13,000. "I told him the only way he could hope to win her back was to make full and generous financial restitution to restore the money he had of her."

McLaughlin said Mrs. Anthony had told him her husband had been endorsing the checks when they came and handing them to her husband.

Describing the two principals, Attorney McLaughlin said:

"Both of them were altruistic, but from a standpoint of philanthropy. One was a philanthropist, the other was a generous, almost to a fault, having little regard for money, giving it away freely and generously."

The attorney then pictured Mrs. Anthony as a woman who was holding for the protection of herself and her two sons against her husband.

When he had completed his testimony Mrs. Anthony resumed the stand to continue her story of her life as the school girl wife of her professor "Dream Husband."

5 MINUTES ON STAND

Mrs. Anthony stood on the stand but five minutes, but had time enough to say:

"My husband never discussed transactions in property he made. On one occasion he told me when I spoke to him about selling a part of the Kearsdale property without consulting me, he answered in such a manner that I was paralyzed from head to foot."

"The next morning my husband said: 'If you don't sign to close this deal I will have a guardian appointed over you and it will cost $100,000.'"

Colliding Auto Hits Pedestrian

William Goodman, 27, of Bryant street, Malden, was recovering today from injuries suffered in a fall from a car.

He was struck at Pleasant street and Fellowship street, Malden, by a machine operated by David Pringle, of City street, Melrose, after it had been in collision with another machine.

Bad Breath Comes from Constipation

Don't try to cover up bad breath. Remove the cause. Get rid of constipation and your breath will become fresh and sweet. Even more important, you will notice immediate improvement in your health and spirits.

Constipation is dangerous for anybody. Nujol is safe for everybody. It does not affect the stomach and is not absorbed by the body. Medical authorities approve Nujol because it is so safe, so gentle and so natural in its action.

Nujol makes up for a deficiency of natural lubricant in the intestines. It softens the waste matter and thus permits thorough and regular bowel movements without gripping.

Use try Nujol regularly for the next month and see if you don't feel better than you ever suspected you could.

Ask your druggist for Nujol.

Nujol
FOR CONSTIPATION

Liberty 7342

PROWLERS GET 2 POCKETBOOKS

Three Cambridge citizens today demanded protection from the increasing activities of prowlers about their homes.

Two women, who lost pocketbooks containing money, and a man reported the presence of intruders in their homes.

Letta Taylor of Mt. Auburn street told police she left her pocketbook on a table. She left the room for a short time and when she returned the pocketbook was gone and she saw a man fleeing from the house.

The loss of a pocketbook was also reported by Mrs. Nellie F. Parry of Sacramento street, who told police she heard a prowler in a bedroom and when she went to investigate saw a man jump out of the window with her purse in his hand.

Arthur McDonald of Perry street reported that he had seen an intruder lurking around his home.

France Jails Spy

Paris, July 17 (AP)—A 10-year sentence for espionage was imposed today on Boris Serge de Stackenberg, sometime Paris military attaché of the imperial Russian government.

SECRET WEDDING

The secret marriage of Miss Alice Elizabeth McManey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McManey, of Highland street, West Newton, to Joseph L. Tobin, of Newton, was revealed today by the couple.

The nuptial ceremony was performed in St. Gabriel's Monastery, Brighton, on April 14th.

The bride, well known in Newton social and club circles, has been attached to the Mayor's Relief committee for the past four years.

She is a graduate of Newton high school and Fairleigh Dickinson College.

Tobin, former star athlete at Church of Our Lady high school, Newton is the son of Mrs. Katherine Tobin, of Jackson road, Newton.

The couple plan to take a delayed honeymoon to South America within a few weeks and following their return will reside in Newton.

France Jails Spy

Paris, July 17 (AP)—A 10-year sentence for espionage was imposed today on Boris Serge de Stackenberg, sometime Paris military attaché of the imperial Russian government.

MRS. JOSEPH L. TOBIN

"EYE DOCTORS" ARRESTED

Northampton, July 17.—Victims of the fake oculist racket in western Massachusetts today viewed a father and son arrested by state troopers in Belchertown as the alleged dupes of elderly persons afflicted with eye trouble.

The pair, booked on charges of obtaining money under false pretenses, have already been identified by Mrs. Sarah Richards, 76, of Orange, as the men who victimized her, posing as eye specialists. Police expect other victims will identify them today.

The men gave their names as Samuel Buestine, 56, and Arthur Buestine, 30, both of West End avenue, New York. Troopers say they found equipment in their auto which led them to take them in custody in connection with the fake oculist investigation.

Most Promisingest Campaign Is This

By ARTHUR "BUGS" BAER

This is getting to be the most promisingest campaign since old man Perry courted the rich widow.

Another fellow comes along and promises everybody a house and lot. When you ask him where he is going to get all that, he says something about twelve leaves and twelve fishes.

If he means twelve leaves and twelve fishes, he is underestimating the reason by a couple of million.

Copyright 1936. Reprinted by Universal.

"SALADA"

The Perfect Tea for ICED TEA

Kane's MARCHES ON to Greater Buying Power! Greater Service to N. E.!
Celebrates Opening Of 16th Great Store In The Chain With A Feast Of $16 Bargains You'll Never Forget!

SATURDAY 9 A.M. to 9 P.M.

Kane's Celebration Sale!

Kane's Expands Again! Opens Newest Store in Central Square, Cambridge! Celebrates the great occasion with the greatest bargains in its history!

COME! RAIN OR SHINE! CELEBRATE WITH US! SAVE! SAVE! SAVE!

At All Kane Stores

Save $13.50! Complete 10-Piece Studio Ensembles REDUCED to $16

A living room by day, a bedroom (with full or twin beds) at night. Triple Cordia Couch, 2 Modern End Tables and 2 Modern Table Lamps and Shades COMPLETE!

Our Reg. Price $29.50
$16
1 Delivers

Extra Sale Feature

This 10-pc. Cocktail Ensemble in Cut Glass and Glistening Chromium Plate GIVEN WITH every purchase of $16 or over.

Save $13.50! SIMMONS Bed With Spring, Mattress and Chest, $16

The most sensational bedroom EXCHANGE value we believe New England has ever seen. Linnemoss panel bed, with sturdy Spring, comfortable Mattress and room Chest of Drawers ALL for $16!

Our Reg. Price $29.50
$16
1 Delivers

Complete 16 Pc. Living Room Ensembles

You SAVE Exactly $55.84

Genuine FREEZE-TEG suite, $112 Fringed Rug—All these Pieces Included

- 1 Sofa
- 1 Table Lamp
- 1 Bridge Lamp
- 1 Bookcase
- 1 Chair
- 1 End Table
- 1 Bed Table
- 1 Table
- 1 Picture
- 1 16x22 Fringed Rug

Our Reg. Price $112.00
$59.16
16c a Day

Extra Feature! 16 Pc. Bedroom Ensembles

You SAVE Exactly $50.84

3 Major Pieces, $112 Fringed Rug, all these extras included!

- 1 Bed
- 1 Table Lamp
- 1 Bridge Lamp
- 1 Bookcase
- 1 Chair
- 1 End Table
- 1 Bed Table
- 1 Table
- 1 Picture
- 1 16x22 Fringed Rug

Our Reg. Price $101.68
$50.84
16c a Day

KANE'S

740 WASHINGTON STREET, BOSTON

Buy Now! Beat the Rising Market

Goods Stored Free Till Wanted

SPECIAL! 4 ROOMS FOR THE PRICE OF 3!

16 Pc. Living Room $195
16 Pc. Dining Room $195
16 Pc. Bedroom $195
8x12 Fringed Rugs Included

Our 15-Store Buying Power Means Bigger Savings

WALDEN—Dorchester St.
HYDE PARK—1295 River St.
CAMBRIDGE—505 Mass. Ave.
LYNN—219 Union St.

QUINCY—1546 Hancock St.
FRANKINGHAM—44 Irving St.
LAWRENCE—2nd, 3rd and 4th Sts.

BROCKTON—315 Main St.
WALTHAM—300 Moody St.
LAWRENCE—2nd, 3rd and 4th Sts.

Shop at the Kane Store Nearest Your Home

Trade In Your Old Furniture

Extra Liberal Allowances Now

VETERANS! PLAY SAFE!

No other Furniture Store offers you the protection of Kane's big buying power which means BIGGER Savings, Better Service and Easier Credit Terms

OPEN SATURDAY EVENING TILL 9 P. M.

STRAW VOTE SHOWS WHITE LEADS BRANN IN MAINE

MASSACHUSETTS
Continued from First Page

vious two days having sounded the sentiment in Boston and Brookline.

Ballots were collected in Worcester in front of police headquarters, in Main street and the shopping district, in Merchant street in the business district and in two residential sections.

Lodge, in the Worcester voting, received 199 ballots as against only 124 for his Democratic-New Deal opponent, Governor Curley.

In the gubernatorial column, John W. Haigis, the Republican aspirant, picked off a total of 182 votes, as against 121 for the Democrat, State Treasurer Charles F. Hurley.

The surprise in the straw ballot poll thus far has been the strength evidenced by the Republican candidates in Boston and Worcester, two of the largest cities of the Commonwealth.

It is something from the hand-book of politics that city voters are normally Democratic in leanings in the main, while the trend in other than urban centers is usually Republican.

And so far, this tremendous Republican strength of the outgoing sections has not yet been evidenced.

Mail voting also is strongly Republican, as shown by the third day's mail tabulation, Lodge receiving 127 votes in only 19 for Curley—a lead of practically 12 to 1, while Haigis was given 150 votes to only 21 for Hurley, or nearly 6 to 1.

The Boston Evening American-Boston Sunday Advertiser straw ballot car in the Springfield today, sounding out the sentiment there.

If you miss this car, however, you can send in your selections on the ballot printed in today's editions.

Results are printed daily in the Evening American and on Sundays in the Sunday Advertiser.

Taken for "Ride" by Girl, Is Robbed

Nahant police were today seeking a girl who "invited" Edward Argut, 25, of Trinity street, Lynn, for a ride last night with two men companions.

Police said Argut met the trio in a restaurant and then rode away with them in an automobile. The two men then drove to Lynn, out of the car, beat him and took $25 out of his pocket.

Traced later through the number plates of the car, police arrested Wallace B. Bernard, 23, of South street, and Bernard F. White, 20, of Essex street, both of Lynn, and charged them with assault and battery. They refuse to disclose the identity of the girl.

They will be arraigned in Nahant court today.

MAINE
Continued from First Page

Gardiner and Augusta.

Following are the figures, including mailed votes, for the first three days of balloting:

For United States Senator
White 524
Brann 811
For Governor
Barrows 1071
Dubord 971

In Gardiner, 219 ballots were picked up throughout the city on this third day in Maine, the previous two days having been spent in Portland, Lewiston and Auburn.

In Augusta, the Maine capital, a total of 277 ballots were collected on the third day, from points in front of the North Hotel, City Hall and at Water and Oak streets.

On this number, Ernest Molazz and Dr. Noyes Rogers each received one vote for Senator and the Rev. Benjamin Bubar received four votes for governor.

Gardiner gave 53 votes to White as against 57 for Brann, and 80 votes for Barrows as against 50 to Dubord.

Thus far in the showing in Maine, the downstate voters here are giving all the worst of it to supporters of Rooseveltism and the New Deal.

Today the Boston Evening American-Boston Sunday Advertiser straw ballot automobile garners the expressions of voters in Bangor.

Watch for it if you have not yet cast your straw ballot—or if you miss the car, mail in your choices on the ballot published today.

Dr. McBride Quits U. S. Dry League

Washington, July 17 (US)—Resignation of Dr. F. Scott McBride

as head of the Anti-Saloon League of America, a post he had held for more than 15 years, has been announced here.

Dr. McBride will succeed the late Dr. Homer W. Topp as superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of Pennsylvania.

Denver Park Pioneer Dies
Denver, July 17 (AP)—Mrs. Mary Elton Long, 86, who with her husband founded Elitch Gardens Amusement Park and famed summer theater, died last night.

Testing Political Sentiment in Worcester

Touring Worcester in the interests of the Massachusetts straw vote poll is this representative of the Boston Evening American and Boston Sunday Advertiser, Lester J. Smith, shown here in one of the automobiles being used to round up votes. Latest returns in the Massachusetts poll shows Republican candidate holding a wide margin over their Democratic opponents.

LOCARNO BIG 3 REACH ACCORD

Paris, July 17 (AP)—Three Locarno powers, seeking to reconstruct the European peace framework, reached agreement today on three points for a prospective discussion.

Great Britain, France and Belgium have formed an accord, informed sources said, on these points:

1.—Representatives of the three powers will meet Wednesday in a compromise session.
2.—The meeting will concern an "exchange of views" rather than detailed consideration of the Locarno question, thrust before the signatories by Hitler's re-occupation of the Rhineland last March.

3.—The French and British will publish a statement before the meeting to assure Germany and Italy the conference is not directed against them.

Crosland Dies Of Crash Injuries

Hollywood, Calif., July 17—Alan Crosland, of film directing fame, was dead here today of injuries he received in an automobile accident July 10.

Crosland had been associated with motion pictures since 1912, when he joined the old Edison Company.

He was a native of New York city, having been born there August 10, 1894.

Most of the Hollywood stars of the present and past generations had worked with him. These included Alice Brady, when she was a star of the silent screen, John Barrymore, Marion Davies and Al Jolson.

NAVY MEN KNEW ACTS, SAYS SUSPECT

Copyright, 1936, by International News Service.
Washington, June 17—John B. Farnsworth, ex-naval officer accused of espionage, expects to base his defense plea on the contention that former Annapolis classmate and intimate in the Navy Department had full knowledge of his protracted negotiations with Japanese government agents.

This was disclosed today following several conversations between the accused man and Franklin K. Lane, son of the late Secretary of the Interior.

Lane, a prominent capital attorney, visited Farnsworth in his District of Columbia jail cell on Wednesday and Thursday.

While denying he has been retained as the prisoner's counsel, Lane admitted he had advised Farnsworth "not to talk" about his case until he appears before the grand jury or at the arraignment hearing set for July 20.

Lane said he has known the slender ex-naval commander and aeronautics expert when the latter was a "pilot" at the naval academy. He was a member of the wedding party at Farnsworth's first marriage in 1915.

Farnsworth told Lane that after his court-martial from the navy in 1927 he began negotiations with both Chinese and Japanese government officials.

Because of his long career in the naval service, the majority of his friends and associates were members of the navy personnel. Farnsworth said it was the natural thing for him to contact them in his effort to rehabilitate himself.

TRAINING AID
After launching negotiations with

Where BOSTON BUSINESS GOES HOME TO LUNCH THOMPSON'S SPA

★ Week-end Cruises on the STEEL PIER ★
Today, Saturday and Sunday
PROVINCETOWN
$2 100-mile trip to Boston's...
TONIGHT 9-12 P. M.
MOONLIGHT MELODY CRUISE
$2 A dinner meeting on steel...
HUBBARD 2650

BOSTON EVENING AMERICAN—SUNDAY ADVERTISER
MASSACHUSETTS STRAW VOTE BALLOT
REPUBLICAN DEMOCRAT
FOR U. S. SENATOR
Henry Cabot Lodge, Jr. ☐ Governor James M. Curley ☐
FOR GOVERNOR
John W. Haigis ☐ Charles F. Hurley ☐
(Write in name of any other candidate preferred for U. S. Senator or Governor.)
U. S. SENATOR
GOVERNOR

BOSTON EVENING AMERICAN—SUNDAY ADVERTISER
MAINE STRAW VOTE BALLOT
REPUBLICAN DEMOCRAT
FOR U. S. SENATOR
U. S. Senator Wallace H. White, Sr. ☐ Governor Louis J. Brann ☐
FOR GOVERNOR
Lewis O. Barrows ☐ F. Harold Dubord ☐
(Write in name of any other candidate preferred for U. S. Senator or Governor.)
U. S. SENATOR
GOVERNOR

Weekly Cash Prizes . . . for clever amateur writers, artists, poets

BOSTON AMERICAN AMATEUR EDITION

Sea Scout Hits Deck With Bang
VICTIM OF STAR JOKER
Shirley Ho Thinks
GOLDEN IS THEIR SPEECH
All Types Ride On Swan Boats
BOSTON'S UNIQUE FLEET
Kiddies Have Fun
Joe Had One Bad Fault
The Sun HE ACTED ON IMPULSE
The Parrot
Melancholy
3 Dogs on a Fence
Give Me That!

TRAIN BARGAINS

B & M TRAIN FARES TO ALL PORTS REDUCED NEARLY 50%

LOOK AT THIS FOR MONEY SAVING
Low Fares to Nearby Ports From BOSTON, MASS.

To: Was In Now
Concord, N. H. $2.64 $1.39
Fitchburg, Mass. 2.41 1.25
Greenfield, Mass. 2.81 1.25
Haverhill, Mass. 1.19 .70
Keene, N. H. 3.29 1.65
Littleton & Betha
Lebanon, N. H. 4.76 3.60
Manchester, N. H. 2.02 1.15
Nashua, N. H. 1.81 .55
Newburyport, Mass. 3.14 2.50
Portsmouth, N. H. 4.49 2.50
Plymouth, N. H. 2.06 1.15
Troy, N. Y. 6.87 3.85
White River Junction, Vt. 5.15 2.70

Children Under 12, Half Fare
Children Under 5, Free
For new low fares to any other port, telephone or call at railroad station

BIG SAVINGS to Distant Points From BOSTON, MASS.

To: Was In Now
Bangor, Me. $8.60 $4.50
Chicago, Ill. 28.15 20.50
Cleveland, O. 24.36 13.55
Lewiston, Me. 2.21 2.30
Montreal, P. Q. 13.00 10.25
St. John, N. B. 18.00 10.25

Children Under 12, Half Fare
Children Under 5, Free
For new low fares to any other port, telephone or call at railroad station

BOSTON AND MAINE MODERN TRANSPORTATION

Why, it's like getting regular $1.25 Silk Stockings FOR ONLY 69¢

Yes, or like buying yourself a $35 SUIT For Only $19.43

NEW LOW FARES SAVE YOU 44½¢ ON THE $1

Talk about bargains! Who ever heard of a bargain like this before! Train fares have been cut nearly one-half—an actual saving to you of 44½¢ on the dollar. And these new low fares apply to all points on all railroads on all regular coaches, deluxe coaches, and air-conditioned (cool and dustless) coaches. Yet, even on our Streamlined Train, Fares in Pullmans are lower, too.

"It's amazing," says one experienced traveler, "traveling by train this year will save me $40 to $50."

But money isn't all you save, by any means—and, KEEP COOL! Arrive—fresh as a daisy. Travel in air-conditioned trains is noiseless, dustless, and refreshing.

You save time and energy as well. Let the trains take you shopping, visiting, vacationing. No other means of travel is so safe, so sure, so satisfactory and, now, so economical.

The list of fares shown is just a sample of the savings you can make. All other fares are just as low. Go to your railroad station today. Find out how much you can save by using the train.

TAKE IT EASY! TAKE THE TRAIN AND SAVE!

The "AMATEUR EDITION" is a weekly feature of the Saturday Boston American. If you have an interesting story, article or interview . . . if you can write clever comments on current events or sports . . . if you have talent for drawing or writing verse, here is your opportunity to win a cash prize and have the thrill of seeing your name in print. Get busy NOW . . . and send your entry to

"Amateur Section Editor"
BOSTON AMERICAN
New England's Greatest Evening Newspaper

CLERGY TO WAR
ON ATHEISTIC
COMMUNISM

St. Louis, July 17 (US)—A militant call for a conference of clergymen and laymen from coast to coast to map plans to crush "atheistic Communism" and promote Americanism was issued here at a meeting of 13 prominent Catholic and Protestant clergymen from various parts of the country.

The call for warfare against the Reds was issued in the name of 150 outstanding preachers and laymen of the country and set the date for the forthcoming conference as August 12 to 16 in Asheville, N. C. Five thousand spiritual and civic leaders from every state in the union are expected to respond to the call, voted unanimously by the conference.

OUTLINE CAMPAIGN

Plans of the campaign against the Red menace were outlined by the Rev. Ralph E. Nollner, Methodist minister of Houston, Texas, chairman of the organizing committee for the movement.

The Rev. Nollner presided as chairman at the conference of the Protestant and Catholic clergymen. He declared:

"The time has arrived in America and even throughout the world when the clergy of all faiths must inform their people as to the dangers of atheistic Communism."

"The America forward movement is providing every clergyman with literature on the subject."

"The America forward movement is for something. It's for Americanism; for righteousness, and for religion."

"We are for religious freedom as provided under our constitution. We are for academic freedom; we are for industrial freedom, and for freedom of speech and freedom of the press."

"The Communist party claims 60,000 members in the United States but there are thousands of others who believe in the communistic philosophy which is government ownership and control and taking everything away from those who have and giving to those who have not."

COMMUNIST PHILOSOPHY

"The Communist philosophy is to do away with God. The Communist would close our churches; would regiment our children; would make it impossible for a man to own anything."

"With this condition in America—threatened strikes here and there, what is going on in France, Russia and elsewhere, we must as Christian leaders tell the people the truth about atheistic Communism—not only the plans of the Communist party but what many are teaching who do not belong to the Communist party."

"Five thousand clergymen and laymen from every state in the Union will meet from August 12-16 at Asheville, N. C., to hear outstanding clergymen and religious leaders of all denominations discuss Americanism, righteousness and religion."

"This movement is not asking a clergyman or layman to join anything. There are no membership fees or dues. All we ask is that the clergymen and laymen receive our literature and then use it in whatever way they can."

The call for the national conference was as follows:

"Americanism, religion and righteousness are today facing a more serious challenge than at any time since religious freedom was embodied in the Constitution of the United States."

"Terrorism forces are at work through the press, radio, in the forum and even back of the sacred pulpit, spreading propaganda to destroy faith in the church of God and in American ideals and institutions."

"The shadow of the vulture wings of atheistic Communism can be traced only through a revival of intense Americanism and religion."

"We need the influence of religious homes, the light of Bible truths and the guidance of Christian statesmanship to protect and preserve the republic and our faith."

"We need men like Washington and Jefferson and Lincoln, who taught individual responsibility to God and government in all affairs of life. We need unity of action among the clergy and laity to stand as mighty force against the heinous attacks, sanctioned always, and oftentimes dictated by atheistic Red Russia."

"To meet the challenge of Communism and Communist propaganda organizations, national convention of clergymen, laymen and patriotic women is hereby called to assemble in the city of Asheville, N. C., August 12 to 16, 1936."

"The purposes of the convention are:

1.—To uphold the Church of God.
2.—To stimulate Americanism.
3.—To strengthen the church and its institutions, the home, the individual and all forces that stand for religion, justice and freedom.

4.—To formulate definite plans effectively to combat the world's common enemy—Communism.

"The foe is on our shores; the hour has come when we must give for the protection of our hearthstones, our places of worship, our flag and our civilization."

"We face a powerful, thoughtful, cunning enemy. Let us meet it as Christian patriots in a great Christian league."

"All churches and religious groups throughout the United States are urged to send their ministers and a delegation of laymen and mothers to this important conference."

Great BEEF SALE

First National Stores

LARD PURE REFINED 2 1 LB PKGS 25c

POTATOES NEW CROP U. S. No. 1 GRADE 15 LBS 43c

Libby's Corned Beef 2 12oz Tins 29c

Campbell's Tomato Soup 3 Tins 20c

Red Salmon Fancy Alaska Tall Tin 21c

Peanut Butter Finest 2 1 Lb Jars 25c

Tomato Catsup Finest Brand 2 1 Lb Jars 25c

Eveready Fruit Cocktail 2 No 1 Tins 25c

Matches Ohio Blue Tip - Strike Anywhere 6 Lge Bxs 23c

Midco Ice Freeze Assorted Flavors 2 Tins 19c

Mankind Dog Food 3 1 Lb Tins 25c

TEA SALE

*GOLDEN ROSE CHOICE CEYLON 1/2 LB CARTON 25c
*OR HOMEMAND ORANGE PEKOE BLEND
*FORMOSA OOLONG or MIXED 1/2 LB CTN 21c
*ENGLISH BREAKFAST 1/2 LB CTN 21c

HERSHEY'S CHOC. SYRUP 15-20 TINS 9c
MANHATTAN TOMATO JUICE 30-40 BOT 15c
POST BRAN FLAKES 2 PKGS 21c
GRAPE-NUT FLAKES 2 PKGS 21c
APPLE JELLY PURE MIRABEL 1 LB JAR 10c
SKYFLAKE WAFERS NEC LB PKG 19c
FIG BARS N B C LB 15c
GRAHAM CRACKERS LB PKG 18c
B&M LOBSTER RED JACKET No 1/2 TINS 33c
STANDARD TOMATOES 3 20c
OLIVE OIL 4 oz BOT 15c
TICK NO. FLOOR WAX Also Insecticide PINT 25c

CLOROX DEODORANT AND DISINFECTANT 2 1/2 QT 25c
FAIRY SOAP 3 BARS 10c
WELCH'S GRAPE JUICE PINT BOT 19c
VINEGAR FINEST GAL JUD 39c
EVANGELINE MILK 1/2 GAL JUD 20c
BLUE ROSE RICE 3 TALL TINS 6c
PINK SALMON TALL TIN 10c
MACARONI OR FINEST SPAGHETTI 8-16 PKG 5c
RICHMOND PEACHES LGE TIN 13c
GRAPE JAM 2 1/2 QT 25c
HORMEL SPICED HAM 12-14 TINS 25c
LEMON JUICE 2 1/2 QT 25c

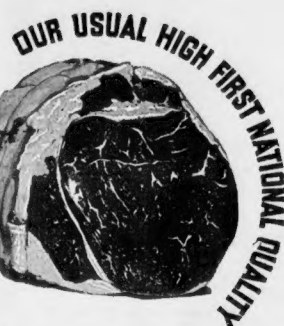

FRESH BREAD ...

First National's fresh baked breads are as high quality as it is possible to bake. Only choice ingredients are used. The bread is delivered fresh daily to our stores.

LONG LOAF BIG 30 oz LOAF 9c
MILK BREAD BIG 30 oz LOAF 9c
PRIZE WHITE SLICED OR REGULAR BIG 30 oz LOAF 8c

DOUGHNUTS PLAIN OR CINNAMON 2 DOZ 29c BUTTERSCOTCH CAKE 2 FOR 25c

PRICES EFFECTIVE IN BOSTON AND VICINITY

All beef sold over our counters is guaranteed heavy corn fed steer beef of the finest quality. There is no second quality - only one quality, the best; one price, the lowest.

BEST CUTS PRIME HEAVY CORN FED STEER BEEF

RIB ROAST LB 23c

BONELESS OVEN OR POT ROAST - ALL BEST CUTS

CHUCK ROAST LB 25c

BONELESS CLEAR MEAT - ALL HEAVY STEER BEEF

FACE RUMP LB 27c

TENDER DELICIOUS CUTS OF HEAVY CORN FED STEER BEEF

RUMP STEAK LB 45c

Lean Ends LB 23c

Fancy Brisket LB 27c

Lamb Fores LB 17c

Frankforts Sliced LB 21c

FRESH FISH

Halibut Fresh Sliced LB 25c

Cod Steak 2 LB 19c

Swordfish Sliced Fresh LB 33c

BANANAS

FANCY MELORPE 4 LBS 21c

TOMATOES

RED RIPE EXTRA FANCY 2 LBS 19c

GREEN PEAS

JUST ARRIVED SWEET, TENDER 2 LBS 17c

NATIVE BEETS LARGE BUNCHES 3 BNCHS 10c

NATIVE CELERY LARGE BUNCHES 2 BNCHS 25c

HONEYDEW MELONS Med. Size EACH 19c

MAYONNAISE

You don't know how good a salad can be until you try Finest Brand because it is smoother and has a popular flavor that everybody likes.

8 oz Jar Pint Jar Quart Jar 15c 25c 43c

Belmont Salad Dressing PINT JAR 19c QUART JAR 29c

FIRST NATIONAL STORES

KNOX, SMITH TO CONFER

Chicago, July 17.—(INS)—Col. Frank Knox, Republican vice-presidential nominee, today was planning a trip to New York to confer with former Governor Alfred E. Smith, vigorous critic of the Roosevelt administration and himself the Democratic presidential nominee in 1928.

This disclosure was made by Governor Alfred M. Landon's running mate upon his return from Topeka, where he conferred with the Republican presidential nominee on campaign strategy and tactics.

Colonel Knox said: "I have received several personal messages from Governor Smith, the contents of which I do not care to discuss at this time. It is my hope to see him in New York some time after my acceptance speech in Chicago, July 26."

"There is no question about where Governor Smith's sympathies are in this campaign, but I do not know whether he will take an active part in it."

ROCKY POINT SHORE DINNERS
ALL YOU CAN EAT
from 11 to 11:30 P.M.
15¢

G. O. P. Standard Bearers Cool Off

GOV. LANDON
Governor Alfred M. Landon of Kansas pours a glass of ice-water for his running mate, Colonel Frank Knox, Chicago publisher. Despite the intense heat, the G. O. P. standard bearers worked steadily on campaign plans.

(Picture from International News Photograph Service)

Landon and McCarl Confer About New Deal Waste

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
International News Service Staff Correspondent

Topeka, Kas., July 17.—Two of the nation's best known authorities on governmental economy were to meet here today with John R. McCarl, former controller general, to discuss the New Deal's waste.

McCarl was to explain to the Republican presidential nominee his views of the highly complicated system of federal agencies in Washington, which, he has charged, waste millions of dollars of the taxpayers' money. He will describe his proposed reforms in governmental operations. Both he and Governor Landon were agreed in advance that administration of the federal government should give one hundred cents of service for every tax dollar.

CONFERS ON ILLINOIS
Gov. Landon also planned to discuss the Illinois situation with Wayland Brooks, Republican nominee for governor and George Harding, Republican national committeeman from that state. The committee went over the Illinois situation earlier in the week with his running mate, Col. Frank Knox of Chicago.

Apparently, Landon intends to get the views of Brooks and Harding before determining upon his campaign plans for the state. Another visitor during the day will be William M. Chubb, New York attorney, who helped to manage the majority campaign of Eleanor LaGuardia two years ago.

Landon Gets 64 P. C. of West Poll

Chicago, July 17.—Results of a private poll by Iowa, southeastern Nebraska, and northern Missouri, showing 64 per cent of the ballots for Landon and Knox, were announced today by the Republican national headquarters here.

The poll headquarters said, was taken by radio station KENF. The announcement added that President Roosevelt received 29 per cent; Congressman William L. Lemke, third party candidate, three per cent, and the balance were undecided.

Indiana, hands and marching hours, will precede theatrical notification ceremonies on the Capitol lawn at night.

Dies of Burns

Worcester, July 17.—Funeral arrangements are to be completed today for John W. McKean, 34, five-year-old son of Dr. and Mrs. John W. McKean, Jr., of Lincoln street, who died of burns suffered when fire broke out in a barn in which he was playing near his home.

NOTICE

There will be
NO SUNDAY SEA CRUISE
July 19

Eastern Steamship Lines

INDIA WHARF, BOSTON
Tel. Hancock 1700

4¢ THE DIFFERENCE
Weight means power. Jenney Aero Gasoline is heavier than other gasoline. It's the cleanest, safest, most satisfactory gasoline you can use.

JENNEY Aero GASOLINE

Heavy duty is highly recommended for the cleanest, safest, most satisfactory gasoline you can use.

Tempting cold dishes—created by the chef of the famous Hotel Shoreham in Washington, D. C.

The appetizing array of cold cuts shown below is a feature of the July menu in the fashionable Louis XVI Dining Room of Washington's Hotel Shoreham. Through every season, rare dishes come from the gifted hands of the chef here to delight the host of gay and brilliant people who frequent the Shoreham. And here Camels and good food go together. As Robert, watchful maître d'hôtel, observes: "Washington's international society demands the finest in foods and also the finest in cigarettes. Camels are the outstanding favorite at the Shoreham." At famous hotels, clubs, and restaurants the whole country over, other maître d'hôtel report a decided preference for Camels among their patrons.

MOST VALUABLE PLAYER In the National League last season—"Gabby" Hartnett. He certainly enjoys his Camels. Just look at that smile! "I can smoke as many Camels as I like," says "Gabby." "A Camel with meals and after sets my digestion right—sets me right!"

ON THE GO all the time. Bill Ferguson, salesman (right). "The cigarette is Camel," he says. "I smoke them during meals and after as an aid to digestion. Camels give me an extra sense of well-being and contentment. They renew my vim."

SHE HAS MADE OVER 48 PARACHUTE JUMPS. Miss Uva Kimney, rated as America's most daring girl parachute jumper, shown climbing into her chute. "I have to have good nerves and digestion in this game," Miss Kimney says. "So I'm a Camel smoker. I like to smoke Camels at mealtime. They make food taste better and encourage digestion in a pleasant way. Camels don't jangle my nerves. And I enjoy that delicate Camel flavor."

Camels add zest to eating—they set you right. No wonder smokers say:

"For Digestion's Sake . . . Smoke Camels!"

Camels make meals more pleasant—digestion is stimulated—alkalinity increased

In our busy lives, mealtime often finds us in a state of rush and tension. The excitement and nervousness slow down the flow of digestive fluids.

Remember, then, to pause for a Camel. When you smoke Camels at mealtime, the flow of digestive fluids is helped back to normal. Alkalinity is increased. You get more zest out of your food, and experience the well-being that follows a good meal well digested.

There is no milder cigarette than Camel. Thanks to their matchless blend of costlier tobaccos, Camels are gentle on your throat and they never get on your nerves. Enjoy them often for their cheery "lift" . . . for their unequalled taste . . . for digestion's sake. And Camel's firm packing is your guarantee against the annoyance of loose particles. Camels set you right!

COSTLIER TOBACCOS!

Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE
TOBACCOS—Turkish and Domestic—than any other popular brand.

MACHINE-SHOP FOREMAN. John A. Merritt (on the right) works all day amid the pounding din and thump of heavy machinery. "I enjoy Camels any hour—day or night," he says. "But I think they taste best of all at mealtime. When I've finished my meal, I shove back my chair, take out another Camel, and enjoy myself. Camels set me right! They've got everything!"

'Why Won't They Think?'

Woman Financier Slaps Socialites

By PEGGY DOYLE

American women are beneficiaries in 80 per cent of all life insurance. They own 65 per cent of all savings bank accounts, 48 per cent of railroad stocks, 44 per cent of public utility stocks and 40 per cent of real estate.

And so, counsels Catharine Curtis, national director of Women Investors in America, Inc., and first woman to appear before a Senate finance committee, it's time they achieved a working knowledge of finance and politics.

Speaking before approximately 40 social prominentesses gathered at the Friar's Crossing home of Mrs. Richard D. Sears yesterday, Miss Curtis gave them and women generally a verbal wrist-put for their "hopeless ignorance of matters financial."

"Ask the average woman to define Capitalism," she suggested, "query her about Communism and Socialism—their precise meaning—and she's completely stymied."

"She'll refuse a spot on her woman's organization program to political talks and yet to the name of broad-mindedness and up-to-the-minute knowledge she'll welcome a Socialist or a Communist to the platform."

'Won't Think!'

"She's given to much talk of production for use—not for profit. A good-sounding fallacy that's nothing if not Communism in native."

"The trouble with the average woman," she said, "is that she doesn't think. If she did, she'd realize that the profit she gets from her investments is the only way she can build her country up to the first country in the world."

"It's a Capitalist system and the American stockholder is offered an opportunity to become articulate and to be a clubwoman and housewife to become informed."

Attending the financial talk were Mrs. Louis Frothingham, Mrs. Thomas Jefferson Coolidge, Mrs. Walter DeNeve, Mrs. Eileen Sedgwick, Mrs. Gardner Lane, Mrs. Russell Coleman, Mrs. Bernard Wild, Mrs. Philip Dexter, Mrs. Quincy A. Shaw, Mrs. R. D. Sears, Jr., Mrs. James Sullivan, Mrs. Gordon Abbott and Mrs. Charles P. Curtis.

Last evening, Miss Curtis spoke at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Channing, in Dover, on "Woman's Power and Duty as a Citizen."

She will speak this afternoon at Cabot under the auspices of Mrs. C. Grieg Plant, her subject, "Women, Money and Government."

Women in this country, she said, guard $210,000,000,000 and pay a total tax-bill of $5,000,000,000.

Out of their purses comes 80 per cent of $100,000,000 annual tax on life insurance companies, 80 per cent of the $100,000,000 collected in inheritance tax and 40 per cent of an estimated annual property tax of $5,000,000,000.

"Turning to the death struggle between industry and labor that is imminent," Miss Curtis declared that:

"Organized labor went into politics by the route of the Guffey Coal Bill when it became quite evident that the United Mine workers' votes had great political value, though previous to this time organized labor had kept pretty much out of politics."

"The Committee for Industrial Organization which John L. Lewis heads is attempting a nationwide organization of labor by industry rather than by trade. This will develop into complete and absolute control of industry by labor."

"Industry has, of course, been created through the co-operation of capital and labor, and when the time comes to consider that between the years of 1860 and 1934 700 per cent, while wholesale prices advanced less than 15 per cent, and that from the year 1880, when the average factory wage was $2.54 a year and increased to $10.00 per year in 1931, in addition to a great reduction in hours of work, we may well feel that labor's partnership with capital, under the system of private enterprise, has not proved unprofitable."

Miss Curtis, who is as beautiful as she is brilliant, was introduced by Mrs. Lindsay Loring of Dedham, Massachusetts chairman of

CATHARINE CURTIS

C. I. BRINK, SIGN PIONEER, DIES

After an illness of several weeks, Charles I. Brink, outstanding figure in electrical sign advertising, died today in Wyman House, Cambridge Hospital.

He was 68 years old and for 40 years lived in Park avenue, New-

He was president of the C. I. Brink Co., a pioneering firm in the field of electrical sign advertising. Surviving are his wife, a son, John, and three daughters, Mrs. Frank Robinson of Amesbury, Mrs. Lawrence F. Woods of Newton and Mrs. William MacDonald of Worcester, and a number of grandchildren.

2 Youths Caught In Cafe Robbery

Captured at gun point, Harry Kamondis, 21, single, both of Shawmut avenue, South End, were arrested today as they were leaving a cafe in Tremont street.

Patrolman Patrick J. Crowley of the Warren avenue station, who discovered the rear door open, saw the two men in the building. He entered with gun in his hand and, threatening that he would shoot unless they surrendered, the two youths came out with their hands up. They were charged with breaking and entering in the night time with force.

2 Children Plus Match, Sum: Fire

Two 4-year-old children, playing with matches were said today by police of Dudley street station to have been responsible for five fires Wednesday in an apartment house in Humboldt avenue, Rahway.

The first fire out in the cellar causing damage estimated at $20.

NANTASKET BEACH

TRAVEL BY STEAMER HOURLY SERVICE ROUND 50¢ TRIP

Mayflower Harbor Cruises Wed. Fri. and Sat. Eves. L.V. ROWES WHARF 8:30 P. M.

$1.50 Per Couple FREE DANCING—TAP ROOM NANTASKET—DORSET STEAMBOAT CO. ROWES WHARF—HUBBARD 1000

Serve it iced!

3¢ Sale! VALUES GALORE

- Carrots DICED 11 05 5c
- Peas STANDARD 10 05 5c
- Tomato Sauce 10 05 5c
- Prunes 10 05 5c
- Devilled Meats 10 05 5c
- Beans ANY PAIR PLAIN OR SAUCE 10 05 5c
- Sparkle Gelatin 10 05 5c
- Salad Dressing 10 05 5c
- Phillips' Soups 10 05 5c
- Tom. Soup VAN CAMP 10 05 5c
- Wax Paper A & P 10 05 5c
- Kipperd Snacks 10 05 5c
- Encore Spaghetti 10 05 5c
- Encore Macaroni 10 05 5c
- Mustard 10 05 5c

10¢ Sale!

- Iona Beets 10 05 10c
- Iona Peas 10 05 10c
- Grapefruit Juice 10 05 10c
- Tomato Juice 10 05 10c
- B & M Beans 10 05 10c
- Choc. Syrup 10 05 10c
- Tea NECTAR—BRAND 10 05 10c
- Beans SULTANA 10 05 10c
- Pitted Olives 10 05 10c
- Plain Olives 10 05 10c
- Stuffed Olives 10 05 10c
- Salad Dressing 10 05 10c
- Veg. Soup 10 05 10c
- Chicken Broth 10 05 10c
- Pea Soup 10 05 10c
- Clam Chowder 10 05 10c
- Cliquot 10 05 10c
- Molasses 10 05 10c
- Paper Towels 10 05 10c
- Lobster Spread 10 05 10c
- Sardines 10 05 10c
- Shinola 10 05 10c
- Ketchup 10 05 10c
- Ketchup 10 05 10c
- Salt 10 05 10c
- Za-Rex Marmalade 10 05 10c
- Lunch Crackers 10 05 10c
- Graham Crackers 10 05 10c
- Fig Bars 10 05 10c
- E-Zee-Freeze 10 05 10c
- Junket 10 05 10c
- Chili Sauce 10 05 10c
- Rajah Mustard 10 05 10c

TEA Nectar 1/2 LB 25¢

IMPORTED FROM THE FINEST TEA GARDENS OF THE ORIENT . . . AN INTRIGUING FLAVOR . . . YOU'LL LIKE ITS DELICIOUS FROSTY COOLNESS

COFFEE Eight 1 LB 15¢

FRESHLY GROUND BEFORE YOUR EYES TO YOUR WAY OF MAKING COFFEE. FRESH-TO GIVE YOU ALL THE DELIGHTFUL MELLOW FLAVOR THAT IS IN THE BEAN

. . . and get your FRESH cream or lemons at your A&P

OLEO PEACHES

NUTLEY OLEOMARGARINE FLAVORFUL — ECONOMICAL LB PKG 10¢

DEL MONTE—SLICED CALIFORNIA FRUIT 16 OZ CAN 10¢

WHITEHOUSE EVAPORATED 3 1/2 OZ CANS 20¢

YUKON—ASST. FLAVORS (CONTENTS ONLY) 12 12 OZ BOTS 59¢

PEANUT BUTTER SULTANA 2 LB JAR 23¢

MATCHES A & P 6 BOXES 23¢

BEANS FRIEND'S—FAMILY SIZE BRICK OVEN BAKED 2 28 OZ CANS 29¢

KETCHUP ANN PAGE—FROM RED-RIPE TOMATOES 2 14 OZ BOTS 25¢

Palmolive Soap 3 BARS 14¢

Super Suds 2 LARGE PKGS 29¢

Staley's CORN STARCH 16 OZ PKG 9¢

Sauerkraut IONA 3 27 OZ CANS 20¢

Nucoa OLEOMARGARINE 16 OZ PKG 19¢

Salad Dressing IONA 16 OZ JAR 25¢

use FRESH fruits & vegetables for refreshing salads

BANANAS GOLDEN YELLOW 4 LBS 21¢

TOMATOES FIRM RIPE 2 LBS 19¢

NATIVE BEETS 3 BCHS 10c

BEANS GREEN OR WAXED 2 LBS 15c

LEMONS 4 FOR 15c

CELERY FRESH-CRISP 2 BCHS 25c

CARROTS NATIVE TENDER 2 BCHS 9c

CUCUMBERS NATIVE HOT-HOUSE 3 FOR 10c

FANCY MILK-FED FOR ROASTING

3 1/2 TO 4 1/2 LBS. 33¢ LB

HAMBURG STEAK 1/2 19c

FANCY BRISKET 1/2 27c

SPICED HAM 1/2 35c

FRANKFORS SKINLESS 1/2 21c

fish specials!

SWORDFISH SLICED AND STRICTLY FRESH 1/2 29c

HEAVY CORN-FED STEER BEEF—GUARANTEED! RIB ROAST 1/2 23c

BOONESS—FOR OVEN OR POT ROAST CHUCK ROAST 1/2 25c

HEAVY STEER BEEF—TOP QUALITY ASSURED RUMP STEAK 1/2 45c

5 Little Human Question Marks

Fate destined them for fame and fortune from the moment of their birth. They became the wards of a great empire . . . the eyes of the entire world looked in on their daily life. Then came the protests of their parents . . . legal hills and other developments. Now . . . for the first time . . . is revealed the

SECRET BATTLE over the

DIONNE QUINS

A series of exclusive, behind-the-scenes stories by Win Brooks, beginning in the

JULY 19

Sunday Advertiser

New England's Greatest Sunday Newspaper

PRICES EFFECTIVE IN BOSTON AND VICINITY

• A&P Food Stores •

How do you keep your children so nice and healthy? This question please Mrs. McKay, who now tells her neighbors: "I happened to read about

Dr. Tru's Elixir

Laxative Round Worm Expeller

through a relative—as my little boy was for some time troubled with loss of appetite, restlessness, and at times was very fretful, I decided to try Dr. Tru's Elixir. . . . He began to improve immediately and in a very short time he was well. . . . I would never be without it."

Signs of Round Worms are: Constipation, deranged stomach, swollen upper lip, offensive breath, hard and full stomach with pains, pale face, eyes heavy, short dry cough, grinding of the teeth, etc.

Dr. Tru's Elixir laxative round worm expeller—made from imported herbs . . . mild and pleasant to take . . . for children and adults.

Successfully Used for 41 Years

Dr. Tru's Elixir

DANNO TESTS CROWN 'LEFT'

MOUNTIES QUELL RIOT AS IRISH HERO BOWS TO ROBERT

AUSTEN LAKE

Olympic Bureaucrats Thick on Board The S. S. Manhattan

AT THE RISK OF BECOMING a common scold on matters of athletic moody, one wonders whether the patriotic citizens who fished up the funds to float our Olympic boys and girls to Germany, are happy to notice that 108 of the sailing party are non-athletic bureaucrats who are travelling to Berlin and back with all expenses paid from the Olympic purse.

At the $500-per-head rate which some of the girl athletes were told to dig up or get left at the dock, it is costing $54,000 to haul and pasture these official stooges who, with few exceptions are towel swingers, coat-holders and political handshakers who justify the cost-free junkets by being enrolled as deputy rubber stamp bearers and team tutors.

This is particularly interesting because today Avery Brundage, the Olympic team president, witnessed from the S. S. Manhattan imploring his home office to raise $25,000 more.

There are 26 members of the committee who are getting the ride for being good boys, and a small army of team managers, batmen, coaches and shepherds follow. For example in the rowing department there is a manager and two assistants, a coach for the 8-oared crew, one for the scullers, one for the 4-oared crew without coxswain, another for the 4-oared crew with coxswain, a boatman and a trainer.

And the weight lifters, which is one of the many queer phases of Olympic fun, have a head manager, two assistants, a coach, assistant coach and trainer, or 6 gruffers for the ten athletes on the team. The rest of the sport divisions are correspondingly outfitted with free-trippers who swing aboard on the coat-tails of the athletic kids.

WARNING TO PIPE SMOKERS

FRETFUL OVER SIGNS OF A YANKEE slump, Manager Joe McCarthy has threatened to deprive every pipe-smoker on the club of his bowl and pouch as a campaign against smugness. In a manifesto to the team he said: "We're not to stop this pipe-smoking and get down to business. Sitting back with that old pipe and telling yourself you are too far out in front to worry, is as dangerous as eating pig's knuckles and kraut before you have to pitch."

Nor is this the first time that a major league executive has shown prejudice against pipe smoking. Some years ago, after Heinie Wagner's disastrous tenure with the Red Sox, Bob Quinn told me he would never hire another pipe-smoking manager. He complained that Heinie's love for retiring early in the evening to his managerial suite, donning his dressing gown and puffing his old calash, was a signal for the recapitulation element on the club to sneak down fire escapes and roister the night away.

Yet the late Miller Huggins was an inveterate pipe smoker, who had a pet meerschaum big as a baby's oatmeal bowl. I have sat with him for hours while he snorted forced jets through his nostrils and spoke baseball wisdom based on his six pennant victories.

FLETCHER MISSED A CHANCE

UNFORTUNATELY FOR THE BEES they cannot recall Elbert Fletcher, the ex-Milton high first baseman, to fill the boots of Buck Jordan, whose heel was badly gashed in Pittsburgh Wednesday. Fletcher is optioned to Buffalo, where he is playing regularly and batting for .328, on a season-long guarantee.

I was sitting with Bob Quinn in St. Petersburg last March when Ray Schalk, Buffalo manager, came around snoring for more surplus material. Bob was eager to place Fletcher in a double-A ball, and suggested Ray take Fletcher subject to 24-hour recall. Schalk refused, and grudgingly Bob signed the boy away for the entire year.

I have never known a man so calm in the face of misfortune as Quinn, whose nature firecracker manner subsides to a mild serenity when disaster rears its ugly head. I have seen him sputter outrage over some player's stupidity on the field or get ratty over the outhouse when discussing some unreasonable salary demand. But his voice carries a hushed, parson's purr when he talked about losing Jordan at this critical period.

TOM SHARKEY RETURNS

OLD TOM SHARKEY, NOW 63 but looking fit and flat about the abdomen, has joined the school of ex-heavyweight fighters who are picking up some easy fees as a wrestling referee. In Boston now to work for the Arena's college of mat curiosities next Wednesday, Tom pinches his nostrils when the current crop of heavyweights are mentioned.

He counts Joe Louis the best of an undistinguished lot and says with a knowing leer that "Somechin' happened" before the Negro fought Schmeling, who, Tom avers, would have been a wretched snuff for himself, Jim Jeffries or any of the ancient ring heroes.

THERE IS LITTLE DOUBT THAT Lefty Grove's revival, which was first few months of the American League race, was gentled down and that the end of his career is around the corner. Rogers Hornsby's bloomer boys paddled Lefty freely in his latest attempt, and only recently Grove confessed during a lobby sidelong that he was "foolish to follow" the baseball wars at his age when he had a comfortable fortune and yearned for his Maryland mountains. Being obdurate in such matters, it is faintly possible that Lefty may announce the end after this season, rather than try to squeeze the last drop of usefulness out of his aging elbow, and spend the rest of his days with a hunting rifle in the hollow of his arm and whistling his beagle hounds along some rocky trail.

OLYMPIC Athletes SEASICK STOWAWAY GIRL IN BRIG

By LEWIS BURTON
Aboard S. S. Manhattan
July 17 (US)—Appendicitis, spreading seasickness, discovery of a girl stowaway and the reading of the riot act today made an eventful voyage of the United States Olympic squad's hegira to Berlin.

Less than 30 hours out of New York harbor, a dozen minor ailments beset America's athletes in addition to the serious case of Robert H. Smallwood, national 400-meter champion, who was stricken with appendicitis.

The minor casualties—all classified as seasickness—grew in number as the Atlantic became a bit rough giving the Manhattan a rolling, pitching motion. Brastline, the Manhattan's officer came upon a stowaway, Billie Billie, a 22-year-old waitress from New York, who just didn't want to go to Germany. She was found in the ship's hold, sleeping in a box. She was given a ticket for the ship's return to New York, but who couldn't raise the stowaway fare. The fact that Billie is a girl entitled her to no exonerating exemption from the penalty imposed on all stowaways. Today Billie is in the ship's brig, and will be tried in the court of America's athletic committee when it was revealed that the American Olympic committee, still needing funds to defray expenses, had turned down an offer of $100,000 from a concern which asked a $100,000 commercial endorsement in return for the money.

The seasickness epidemic struck the Olympic team hard at Coughlin's championship University of Washington crew. Hume, the stroke, and Morris, the bow, were so violently ill that they were hospitalized. This perturbed University officials, since he had hoped that the two men would gain weight on the voyage to Berlin, since his 120 pounds by the time the ship reached Hamburg.

Billie's seasickness is not conducive to giving weight. Hume now tips the beam at 165, while Morris weighs 167.

Torrance III

The biggest case of seasickness aboard the ship of Jack Torrance, the 300-pound shotputter, but the solution is simple. He is a stowaway. More serious attacks were suffered by Harold Pollard and Virgil Johnson, Jr. Herbert Lawson was busy treating the two who weren't out of the sailors, but his chief worry was that the seasickness would be a leading member of the American Olympic track detachment, Smallwood was still in bed with an ice-pack over his appendicitis. However, Dr. Lawson expressed hope the champion middle distance runner would be back on his feet in six days.

It was running a high fever that he suffered the attack yesterday, but today his temperature is down to 99 and was still in bed. An off-boat decision on the question of whether Smallwood will be withdrawn from the Olympics was made yesterday. The decision was not made until it was read to the assembled athletes by Avery Brundage, chairman of the American Olympic committee. Brundage solemnly warned his charges to refrain from smoking, drinking and smoking. Anyone caught indulging in these practices, he said, would be sent back home. Brundage said America's athletes must be in the best of health and to adopt the proper "win for the United States" attitude.

Manero New Pro At Florida Club

New York, July 17 (US)—The Manero New Pro, who was the first national open golf championship at Riviera, was a guest of the Florida Club at Coral Gables. Manero was successful in his first round, which has gone annually to America's leading golfers. Gene Sarazen had the job in 1932 and Glen Davis in 1934. In 1935 the title was won by an amateur, Johnny Goodman of Omaha.

'The Babe' Drives a Long One

"BABE" DIDRIKSON, the one girl cricket team of the 1932 Olympics, wasn't able to sail on the Manhattan this week because she has turned professional. Golf takes up most of her time now and she is showing a few practice swings at the Minute Man Golf Club where she gave an exhibition. They say she is just as good on the golf course as she was on the cinders.

Babe Plays Happy Valley On Sunday

Babe Didrikson is back. The great girl athlete from Texas is making her second New England appearance in the role of a golfer and her powers make her a great attraction. Taylor by the made her debut at the Minute Man in Lexington and team of with Jerry Giffante they beat Clark Hodder and Jesse Guilford one up.

Next Sunday she will play at the Minute Man in Lynn. Babe will team with Alex Eddy. The Ladies of the club will meet. Rosemond Taylor and Alex Eddy will play. Giffante the girl at Happy Valley.

Junior Golf Finals On at Unicorn

By BILL GRIMES
After successfully maneuvering their ways through an 18-hole medal play test and four rounds of match play, Stanley Taylor, Oyster Harbors, and Robert Davis, Walpole, are playing the finals of the 22d Massachusetts junior championship this morning at the Unicorn Country Club.

Taylor and Davis, neither of whom has ever weathered the heat-rage of a junior title event until this year, made the finals on the cinder track, for both are 18 years old and will be ineligible next season, unless the age limit is raised to 21.

Taylor has qualified in two state junior championships, at Woodland and at the 12th hole, but at last night he was out of the 12th hole. He was all set to reach match play at the Unicorn, but he was pulled out of the 12th hole and then dropped out of the 12th hole. Taylor has played a few juniors. He did not make the match play grade of his first and second round two more ago when with three holes in a row, clinching the match. In the second round he was pulled out of the 12th hole. Taylor's opponent, Robert Davis, has played a few juniors. He did not make the match play grade of his first and second round two more ago when with three holes in a row, clinching the match. In the second round he was pulled out of the 12th hole. Taylor's opponent, Robert Davis, has played a few juniors. He did not make the match play grade of his first and second round two more ago when with three holes in a row, clinching the match. In the second round he was pulled out of the 12th hole.

Kick in the Neck Kayos Ex-Champ

Montreal, July 17—Danno O'Mahony today is not recognized as world's heavyweight wrestling champion by the Montreal Athletic Commission, following his match with Yvon Robert, Montreal challenger, here last night, but his manager, Jack McGrath, is en route to New York to protest the French-Canadian youth's victory to the board of the American Wrestling Association.

McGrath and O'Mahony sail tomorrow for Ireland. Danno will fill several European engagements and T. F. Gleeson, president of the American Wrestling Association, has granted McGrath a hearing before the gateway is made.

"We were jobbed in Montreal just as I was told we would be," McGrath said. "I asked for an out of town referee. The commissioner refused to see me and you saw what happened. The man they selected almost put me down. If we did not stop at the canvas, I would stay here and let Danno take that Robert again. Danno three times showed he was a better wrestler than his American bouts."

The end to last night's match came after seven minutes of as furious mauling as has ever been seen in any kind of a sporting contest and caused a riot that did not end until Canadian Royal Mounted policemen sprang into the ring and went into action.

All through the seven minutes of the last fall O'Mahony's superiority stood out. Robert appeared in a bad way.

"Stay in there and fight—don't let him get you," pleaded Robert's supporters.

Scores With Whip

Danno had won the second fall with the Irish whip. He scored a whip in the final fall and again with Robert's head. The Montreal youth came to his feet but groaned. Another whip again bounced him hard against the canvas. He had seen less when he came up this time and staggered back to the ropes. He looked the top rope with his arm and right leg. He fell into a third whip. Robert struggled hard and then, when he saw he could not free himself, did a regular Ginger Rogers kick. His foot landed on O'Mahony's chest and the Irishman went down and out. So much force was behind the kick that it appeared Danno's neck was being torn off.

No sooner had Danno started falling than McGrath leaped into the ring and started protesting to the referee. McGrath's move was a signal for Danno's seconds to follow. Floyd Marshall sprang through the ropes and landed a hard right against the jaw of Dan Marshall, the referee, and the latter went down. Marshall then squared off with Yvon Robert, a French-Canadian, another O'Mahony aide who followed Marshall into the ring, started exchanging punches with Edna Quinn, manager of Robert. There was plenty of warfare until the Royal Mounted Policemen went into action.

All the while there were fights in the crowd, between O'Mahony's Irish supporters and Robert's men.

NEW CHAMP

French well-known, but no serious damage was committed. O'Mahony appeared sluggish in his first fall, which Robert won with the book strokes. He had on the last four minutes and then Danno broke it. As Danno fell back toward the ropes, Robert clinched on a 10 ft head lock, throwing the champion back. He then turned the head into another book stroke, and this time he measured the champion's shoulders across the chest. The time was 25 minutes.

The second and third falls were extremely rough, with both men coming and taking. Danno won the second in 21 minutes. He slammed Robert hard with an Irish whip. Robert hard against the canvas, but he stood down after the fourth. He had to be and tied to his fourth. He was the first time Danno had been beaten since he arrived in America from Ireland, nearly two years ago. In fact, until last night he had lost but two falls and each was to Robert. However, he had beaten the latter three times.

"I hope to be back shortly before Christmas," O'Mahony said. "And then I want Robert again. I will meet him in Boston, Montreal or anywhere, but if it is Montreal an out-of-town referee must work the match. I'm not going to stand for any more of these French-Canadian kids. You is a good wrestler, but he is not my equal."

Robert was lifted from the ring by an admirer after the riot was quelled. All through the fight he remained in the corner, offering to take pay. It never occurred to O'Mahony's men that the victory of their champion was a defeat for them.

HANLEY'S Purple Label ALE

EXTRA PALE - EXTRA GOOD
EXTRA IN EVERYTHING IT TAKES TO BRING YOU AN ALE OF OUTSTANDING CHARACTER. TASTE IT
ORDER A CASE TODAY, IN FULL
QUARTS OR REGULAR 12 oz. BOTTLES

It Tastes better - Its better for you Distributed by
S. S. PIERCE CO.

WATCH FOR THE PURPLE LABEL
JAMES HANLEY CO. PROVIDENCE, R. I.

FLYOD GIBBONS' PAGE OF THRILLS AND MYSTERY

The Man in the Rafters

Harrowing Tale of an Experience That Taught John Schindler to Fear Guns

By FLOYD GIBBONS

HELLO EVERYBODY:

This is the story of John Schindler of West Orange, N. J., and how he learned to be afraid of a pistol. That was a funny thing about John. He says he had always been afraid of things like foxes, spiders and women, but a loaded revolver sticking in his face wouldn't even make him bat an eye. Maybe it was a good thing, too, for John was a detective, and every once in a while somebody DID stick a revolver in his face.

That happened to him once in the Summer of 1922, down in a resort town on the Jersey Coast. The superintendent of an estate there was suspected of robbing his employer with a sort of systematic thievery.

John had been hired to get the goods on him, and was working as second chauffeur while he poked and prodded around gathering his evidence. But just about the time he was sewed up when he met the superintendent on the grounds one dark night. The super had a revolver out and was pointing it at him.

And what did John do? He walked over to the super and ripped the gun right out of his hand. The super started to tell John that he'd mistaken HIM for a thief, but John just snorted, threw the gun on the ground, turned his back and walked away. A spider would have scared him stiff. He'd have run like a turkey from a woman. But shootin' from just didn't impress him.

That's what John THOUGHT. But he wasn't through with that case yet. He was due to be plenty scared before it was all over. And by a gun, too.

It happened the next day, about two o'clock in the afternoon. "I was entering the garage to go to my room," he says, "when I was greeted by the most horrendous laugh I ever heard in my life. I looked about the garage. There was no one in sight. Finally, I looked up."

Three days before, the superintendent's son had been brought home from the State Institute Asylum. Now he was sprawled atop a crossbeam of the garage, leaning down at John with a mad light in his eyes. And in his hand he had a revolver!

"I'd been thinking guns didn't scare me," says John, "but I'd never figure on bumping into one in the hands of a madman. It was the worst experience I ever had in my life. My knees wanted to shake, but I didn't dare let them. I had to keep my head and keep on talking. And talk I did, while he toyed with me like a cat plays with a mouse."

For a full half hour John stood and stared for time. "First," he says, "he told me he was going to kill me and had a few things he wanted to tell me first. He said I had his father suffering the tortures of hell through my butting into his business, and now he wanted to see me squirm. He said he was going to make me suffer as long as possible before putting me out of my misery."

"Then he added that, of course, if anyone came into the garage that would upset his plans, he'd have to shoot before they could interfere. All I could do was stand there and play up to his ego while, at the same time, I prayed no one would come near the garage."

John pivoted up to that insane lad until he thought he'd crack from the strain. He vowed him to death—admitted he had the upper hand and could control the show. He agreed that it was up to him whether he'd let him in there or would until he was done good and ready, and did everything he could think of to make the insane feel he was a great fellow. And the crazy boy, all swollen up with conceit, ate it up as fast as John could dish it out to him.

Meanwhile, all John could do was stall along and hope something would break in his favor. On the other hand each moment of delay meant that someone might come into the garage and startle the mad boy into proving the trigger John had to think fast if he ever expected to get out of that spot alive.

Finally, he began coaxing the mad boy to come down off his perch on the crossbeam. He told him he had all the evidence against his father written down and hidden in his room, and that, before the young lad killed him, he ought to get those papers and destroy them.

"He agreed to that," says John, "and thought he was more clever than ever. He hopped up in the rear and kept me covered as we went up the stairs to my room."

Once in the room, though, John began looking around in places where he knew dozens well there were no papers, mumbling as he searched that he couldn't seem to find what he wanted.

"Finally," says John, "I asked him in an offhand way if it could be on the table next to where he was standing. He fell for it—started looking through the papers on the table. That was my only chance and I took it!"

John says his hands got to that table in just nothing flat. Then the battle was on. John says he was never much at fighting, but he fought for his life that day. He had a struggle to get the gun away from the lad, and another one to keep him from getting it back again. He finally settled the matter by knocking him over the head with the revolver, and maybe, after remembering that terrible half-hour of fear and flattery he had been subjected to, he socked a little harder than usual. Anyway, the lad went out—cold. John didn't have any more trouble with him after that.

But nowadays John doesn't go up against any more brute with guns, unless said brute can furnish him with convincing proof that they're reasonably sane.

The dough is still rolling out, boys and girls. The bucks here and a hundred there. You might as well get your share as you get yours.

Floyd Gibbons will pay good money for good TRUE adventure stories. Hundreds of people in Boston and nearby towns have received ten-dollar and hundred-dollar bills for their yarns, and there's no reason why you can't do the same, for, as Floyd says, everybody has had at least one adventure. Fred A. Carlson of 57 Deaconess road, Boston, won one hundred and ten dollars for the story of his life's biggest moment, and you can do the same. For further details, see the box at the right side of the page.

HOW TO WIN

$100.00

And Membership in The Floyd Gibbons Adventurers' Club

It's the easiest money you ever earned. Here's the only rule: YOUR STORY MUST BE TRUE. Everyone is eligible and you don't have to be a writer to compete, because Floyd will collaborate with you and iron out any rough spots. Just write down the TRUE story of your biggest thrill and mail it to Floyd, care of the Boston Evening American, 3 Winthrop square, Boston. Write your name and address plainly and keep a copy of your letter, as NO STORY CAN BE RETURNED. Do not send valuable pictures or souvenirs. Just send the FACTS!

SECRET AGENT X-9

THESE SEVEN MEN DELIVERED AS ORDERED TASTER WONG

SO BIG RED HAS TAKEN YOU INTO HIS CONFIDENCE—LET'S TRUST HE HADN'T MADE NO MISTAKE!

HOW TO TELEGRAPH THE DEPARTMENT—MISTER WONG AND BIG RED ARE DUE FOR A BIG SURPRISE

BUT THE TREASONOUS "MISTER WONG" HATING X-9 TO INTERFERING IN HIS QUARREL WITH "BIG RED," PLANS A SURPRISE FOR THE SECRET AGENT

A G-Man Double Crossed

AND THAT SLIDE MY FRIEND, NOT ONLY SAVES ME (HIS) BUT IT ALSO SQUARES MY ACCOUNT WITH YOU!

YOU MEAN TO SAY THAT GUY SAVED ME (HIS) BUT IT ALSO SQUARES MY ACCOUNT WITH YOU!

THIS IS "MISTER WONG" "BIG RED"—WHY HAVE YOU NOT DELIVERED THOSE SEVEN MEN AS WE AGREED?

YOU MEAN TO SAY THAT GUY SAVED ME (HIS) BUT IT ALSO SQUARES MY ACCOUNT WITH YOU!

TIM TYLER'S FLYING LUCK

PATROLMAN PARKS ARRIVES AT THE URBANIST VILLAGE AT DAY-BREAK

BUT CHIEF MOLOKO, IF BRENT GAVE YOU BAD SILVER FOR YOUR TUSKS YOU SHOULD'VE TURNED HIM OVER TO THE IVORY PATROL AND NOT TAKE THE LAW IN YOUR OWN HANDS

WE ESCAPE -- WHEN MY WARRIORS FIND HIM THEY WILL KILL HIM!

An Eye for an Eye

I MIGHT AS WELL PLAY SOME HORSESHOES WITH MYSELF WHILE I'M WAITING FOR PATROLMAN PARKS TO GET BACK --

ALL THROUGH THE TERRIBLE NIGHT BRENT HAS KEPT ON THE MARCH

RED BARRY

THAT NIGHT AT EIGHT --

I WAS TALKING TO THE BOSS ABOUT YOU "I TOLD HIM YOU WERE A PRETTY SMART KID!"

OH, I GET AROUND!!

HOW ARE YOU ON OBSERVATION?

LIKE AN INDIAN!!

Somebody's Gonna Have Raspberry

I'LL GET IF I BLINDFOLDED YOU, YOU COULDN'T TELL ME WHERE WE ARE WHEN THE CAR STOPS!!

PUT IT UP!!

WHAT ARE WE BETTIN'?

LET'S MAKE IT A SODA -- I DON'T WANT TOO MUCH OF THAT FIVE BUCKS YOU'RE GETTING!!

MANDRAKE, THE MAGICIAN

MANDRAKE, THE MAGICIAN

RONALD ARRIVES IN TIME TO FOIL THE PLANS OF MOO CHOO CHOO, CALIPH OF CANTON.

TAKE THAT, BASE VARLEY!

AH--WE ARE SAVED!

Lover, Come Back to Me

AND THIS FOR YOU, MOO CHOO CHOO, CALIPH OF CANTON.

QUICKLY, WE MUST BE OFF. I WOULD GIVE MY LIFE FOR YOU.

RONALD, I LOVE YOU! MY HERO!

LITTLE ANNIE ROONEY

I TELL YOU THERE ARE FISH IN THE POND -- I JUST SAW ONE

G'WAN -- I DON'T SEE NO FISH

LOOK RIGHT IN THE SHADOW OF THAT BIG ROCK

IT'S A FISH -- OH, BOY, LET'S GET A HOOK AND LINE AND CATCH SOME FISH!

WHAT DO YOU MEAN, NO FISHING ALLOWED? WHAT'S FISH GOOD FOR IF YOU CAN'T KETCH 'EM?

HERE COMES ANNIE -- ASK HER

Spare the Rod!

I GUESS IT'S ALL RIGHT FOR BOYS TO KETCH FISH, BUT NOT IN SUMMERTOWN -- MR. BULLION WANTS THE FISH AND THE BIRDS AND THE KIDS TO BE HAPPY HERE AND I GUESS A FISH AIN'T VERY HAPPY WHEN SOMEBODY KETCHES IT

Tomorrow--BACKSTAGE

THE LITTLE WOMAN

DILLY DID A FINE JOB OF PATCHING UP THE BLOW-OUT BETWEEN NELL AND THE TIGER -- BUT THEY'RE KEEPING THE TWO MEN ON THE OUTSIDE AS TO HOW SHE DID IT!

C'MON! OPEN UP! HOW DO YOU COAX HER TO COME UP HERE AN' MAKE IT RIGHT WITH HIM?

THERE ARE SOME THINGS MEN DON'T UNDERSTAND, EVEN IF YOU TELL THEM! IS THAT CLEAR?

DILLY IS SURE A GREAT PAL! TELL ME, NELL, HOW DO SHE SQUARE ME WITH YOU?

OH, IF I KNEWED THAT, YOU'D KNOW TOO MUCH ABOUT WOMEN -- MUCH TOO MUCH!

SHE TOLD ME NOthin' -- WHO DID YOU FIND OUT?

MORE OF THE SAME!

Always a Riddle

DILLY IS SURE A GREAT PAL! TELL ME, NELL, HOW DO SHE SQUARE ME WITH YOU?

OH, IF I KNEWED THAT, YOU'D KNOW TOO MUCH ABOUT WOMEN -- MUCH TOO MUCH!

SHE TOLD ME NOthin' -- WHO DID YOU FIND OUT?

MORE OF THE SAME!

ALL LOST AND FOUND

Advertisements Appearing in Boston American-Sunday Advertiser Want Ads. Are Broadcast Daily Over

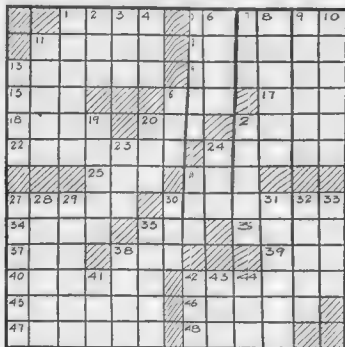

WCOP
ORDER YOUR AD TODAY
Phone Miss James at LIBerty 4000

THIMBLE THEATRE, Starring POPEYE

See Popeye at the Metropolitan Theatre

CROSS-WORD PUZZLE By Igene Sheffer

- HORIZONTAL
- 1—Pack
 - 5—Ruts
 - 11—A state
 - 12—Beast
 - 13—Enrolled voters
 - 14—Edible tuber
 - 15—Constellation
 - 16—Sty
 - 17—Opening
 - 18—Harvest
 - 20—Blemish
 - 21—Smooth
 - 22—A yearly calendar
 - 23—Blasts of wind
 - 25—Steal
 - 26—Possessive pronoun
- VERTICAL
- 27—Plait
 - 30—Afternoon entertainment
 - 34—Limbs
 - 35—Shy
 - 36—Lairs
 - 37—Mimic
 - 38—Take an edgewise
 - 39—Prohibit
 - 40—Followed orders
 - 42—Disprove
 - 45—All
 - 46—Active
 - 47—Take exception to
 - 48—Roman numeral
 - 49—Incense
- HEAD
- 24—Procure
 - 25—Fodder
 - 27—One who censures
 - 28—Complain
 - 29—Demure
 - 30—Witty
 - 31—Luminous object in the sky
 - 32—Growing out
 - 33—Hireling
 - 34—Military
 - 35—Mute
 - 36—Gallike bird
 - 41—Revere
 - 42—Reverent
 - 43—Tee
 - 44—Tree

YESTERDAY'S ANSWERS:

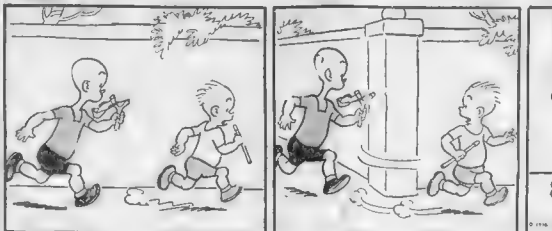

ALAN, ANET, OBI, ABBY, SINTIA, SOP, PELLE, LUNA, RACES, BERT, MORE, EROS, LIVE, VITA, NILE, CAPT, STAM, NIT, LIPS, ALL, MARIO, AGO, ARTIS, OTLE, RIO, LUNA, RAIN, SOL, NEAR, SITTE

BRINGING UP FATHER

HENRY

JUST KIDS

POLLY AND HER PALS

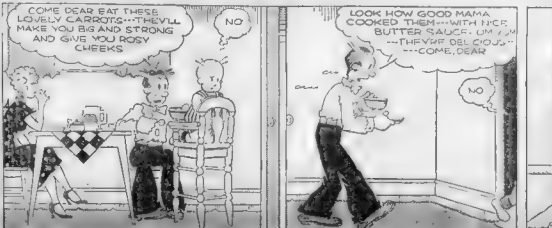

SKIPPY

LITTLE JIMMY

BLONDIE

The Chase

It Fits Well Around the Neck

A Need to Fill

The Soup Taster

Why Bring That Up?

HANEY ON BUSINESS

Wall Street Octopus
DESPITE JOBLESS PLAIN
Proves Myth in Fact

By LEWIS HANEY
(Professor of the New York University)
New York, July 17—This article is dedicated to one W. H. Kely of Pittsburgh.

We often see some statements as "business is opposed to this," or "business does so and so." We are all familiar with the New Dealers' complaint that "business" is refusing to give employment.

What is meant by "business" in such statements? They suggest that there is some single definite thing, some entity, which is business—spelled with a big "B."

Probably this is a play on words. We can and do say that "business is good," or "business is a thriving business." But that is a very different use of the word. Business as good if millions of individual business men are doing well.

We can do things that hurt all business men. But this does not mean that all business men are a combination which can act as a unit, and do things to us.

In fact, the greatest business units are but a small part of "the business world." The U. S. Steel Corporation makes less than 40 per cent of a single product among hundreds of different industries.

Neither the Steel Corporation nor any other particular business is responsible for the men thrown out of work on farms and in textile mills by the agricultural adjustment administration.

Business is not an organization. It is a sort of game, or better, a way of carrying on economic activities. Business is buying and selling for gain. It is all the human efforts that are directed toward making profits, by employing and organizing land, labor, and capital to produce goods for sale.

There are millions of business men, and thousands of materials and products. For all this, no central organization exists. "Wall Street" is just one place in one city, where thousands of individual business men who specialize in finance try to beat one another at the business game. And J. P. Morgan & Co. is just one of dozens of such concerns.

Of course, there are some general interests and rules which all business men have in common. They all want general prosperity, including good purchasing power for those players in the business game which we call farmers and laborers.

They all want secure property and contract rights, and sound money, so that business activity can go on.

But there must be trust. There is no "thing"—no great octopus—which we can set up as an entity, and blame or praise.

Thus when we act "labor" over against "business," we are not dealing with realities. And when a union demands a 30-hour week and higher wages as if "business" owed it these things, it is not thinking straight.

The union must deal with certain individual business men, according to their particular earnings. If they would see the reality, they would realize that they are employing a share in profits, and that one who asks part of the profits in this way should also assume business risks and share losses, too.

Again, the New Dealers' Works Progress Administration idea is that "business" owes laborers a "right to work." The idea is that if any one wants to be a painter or a tap dancer, he may ask "business" for the kind of work and pay he wants. If "business" won't accommodate him, "the government will."

But there is no "business" to be asked. When we look at realities, we find many thousands of particular businesses, struggling to make things we must buy, and to do so that their particular books will show a profit over expense.

Let the labor houses and the New Dealers look at all these thousands of profit and loss statements, and get setting up some straw behemoth, calling it "business," and soaking it with demands for wages and hours of taxes which will kill real business—namely the pursuit of profits by millions of business men.

There never will be a "business" entity, spelled with a big B, unless and until we fall for a Socialist or Fascist state. Then some Totes or Hopkins would be the whip, and laborers (in the army) would be business comrades.

But then there would be no business!

RUKEYSER TO SPEAK
At West Coast Conference

Merrell Stanley Rukyser, noted economist and writer on financial subjects for the Hearst newspapers, will be one of the principal speakers at the 14th regional trust conference of the Pacific Coast and Rocky Mountain States, to be held September 17-18 in San Francisco.

In speaking on "What the Public Wants to Know About the Trusts," Rukyser will give the first representation of the public toward trust institutions in trust conferences programs.

Dr. S. Stinson, of the University of California, will be the principal nationally known technical advisor to banks will speak on "Adequacy of Capital Methods of Corporate Policy."

Other speakers already definitely programmed are: Blaine B. Coles, First National Bank of Chicago; Robert Grissold, Maryland State Bank, Baltimore, Md.; A. Holt Rodhouse, First Valley Trust Company, St. Louis; and Richard Rodhouse, Western Bank and Trust Company, Winston-Salem, N. C.

In view of the fact that the American Bankers Association convention will be held in San Francisco just three days after Merrell P. Callaway, president of the division of the A. B. A., has announced that, except for the few officers, there will be no trust division meeting during the A. B. A.

United Corp. reports for quarter ended June 30 net income of $1,400,000, against $1,300,000 in the week of 1935, and $1,200,000 in the week of 1934.

United Corp. reports for quarter ended June 30 net income of $1,400,000, against $1,300,000 in the week of 1935, and $1,200,000 in the week of 1934.

United Corp. reports for quarter ended June 30 net income of $1,400,000, against $1,300,000 in the week of 1935, and $1,200,000 in the week of 1934.

United Corp. reports for quarter ended June 30 net income of $1,400,000, against $1,300,000 in the week of 1935, and $1,200,000 in the week of 1934.

United Corp. reports for quarter ended June 30 net income of $1,400,000, against $1,300,000 in the week of 1935, and $1,200,000 in the week of 1934.

United Corp. reports for quarter ended June 30 net income of $1,400,000, against $1,300,000 in the week of 1935, and $1,200,000 in the week of 1934.

United Corp. reports for quarter ended June 30 net income of $1,400,000, against $1,300,000 in the week of 1935, and $1,200,000 in the week of 1934.

TRADE
Trends
WHEAT
Value
HIGHER

WHOLESALE
VOLUME UP LARGEST
SINCE 1930

New York, July 17 (AP)—Dun & Bradstreet said in its weekly review of business today that while the summer recession has not yet made itself felt in most trade divisions, trends have been more mixed this week than in some times.

Fears of the effects of drought damage and excessive heat, brought to an end in regions by rains and lower temperatures, were found to be "more psychological than real," the trade organization said.

Wholesale volume continued to expand, the review added, with nearly every type of merchandise sought by the largest number of buyers in the country. The market in six years. No drastic curtailment of rural buying was reported.

On the industrial side of the business, Judge said, the electrical power production, steel, and other heavy industries had made good progress.

The review said that consumer buying broadened on the days when shopping weather turned more favorable, but, since prices prevailed in most lines. Light wear apparel, sports shoes, beach accessories and vacation requirements were in good demand. House furnishings moved well, and sales of electric refrigerators and fans reached new peaks.

Retail sales for the country as a whole, the report said, were 13 to 15 per cent over the corresponding week last year. Some sections of the West reflected continued high temperatures by reporting smaller gains than in more favored areas.

The review said that the total gain in the New England area was 12 to 13 per cent ahead of 1935. In the Middle West, gains were 10 to 12 per cent. In the South, gains were 10 to 12 per cent. In the West, gains were 10 to 12 per cent.

"Distribution of government revenue money to farmers in drought-stricken territories abroad has given new confidence to country merchants, as their orders were released at the best rate in more than a month with staples chiefly supplied."

AM. WOOLEN
Has New Manager

Announcement was made by Moose Production, president of the American Woolen Company, that J. B. Buehler, president of the Buehler Manufacturing Company, had been named as general manager.

Buehler, who has been associated with the company for a good many years, more recently having been president of the American Woolen Company, had been named as general manager.

The new manager will be in charge of the company's operations in the United States, Canada, and Mexico.

Buehler, who has been associated with the company for a good many years, more recently having been president of the American Woolen Company, had been named as general manager.

The new manager will be in charge of the company's operations in the United States, Canada, and Mexico.

Buehler, who has been associated with the company for a good many years, more recently having been president of the American Woolen Company, had been named as general manager.

The new manager will be in charge of the company's operations in the United States, Canada, and Mexico.

Buehler, who has been associated with the company for a good many years, more recently having been president of the American Woolen Company, had been named as general manager.

The new manager will be in charge of the company's operations in the United States, Canada, and Mexico.

Buehler, who has been associated with the company for a good many years, more recently having been president of the American Woolen Company, had been named as general manager.

The new manager will be in charge of the company's operations in the United States, Canada, and Mexico.

Buehler, who has been associated with the company for a good many years, more recently having been president of the American Woolen Company, had been named as general manager.

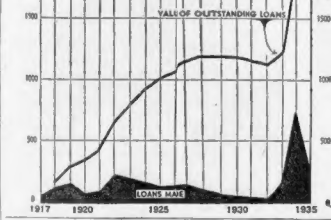

The new manager will be in charge of the company's operations in the United States, Canada, and Mexico.

Buehler, who has been associated with the company for a good many years, more recently having been president of the American Woolen Company, had been named as general manager.

The new manager will be in charge of the company's operations in the United States, Canada, and Mexico.

Buehler, who has been associated with the company for a good many years, more recently having been president of the American Woolen Company, had been named as general manager.

WALL STREET
Sidelights

WALL STREET
Sidelights

New York, July 17—There is a very marked difference between the position of the Northwestern wheat millers as a result of the current drought, and the one which wheat, the nation's wheat belt in 1934.

In 1934 there were available supplies of previous crops, a condition which did not exist today, the Northwestern Grain Company points out. Government figures show there was only a trifling amount of wheat this season than in 1934.

In 1934 the total holdings of old crops was 23,000,000 bushels. This season, it is estimated, there will be only 10,000,000 bushels of old crops left for marketing, it points out. Not only will this compel millers to buy almost all their requirements elsewhere, but there will be no wheat left to spare for Buffalo and the Lake ports, which points again largely on this crop. Of course, it points out, the spring wheat crop alone will not make the price for United States nor for the world, but has been and is now a very important factor, unless it is offset by much larger yields in the winter wheat belt than are now figured.

That farmers in the winter wheat belt in the southwest will benefit at the expense of those in the spring wheat belt in the northwest was brought out clearly. Mounting prices have gone hand in hand with the destruction of the crop, which has been and is now a very important factor, unless it is offset by much larger yields in the winter wheat belt than are now figured.

That farmers in the winter wheat belt in the southwest will benefit at the expense of those in the spring wheat belt in the northwest was brought out clearly. Mounting prices have gone hand in hand with the destruction of the crop, which has been and is now a very important factor, unless it is offset by much larger yields in the winter wheat belt than are now figured.

That farmers in the winter wheat belt in the southwest will benefit at the expense of those in the spring wheat belt in the northwest was brought out clearly. Mounting prices have gone hand in hand with the destruction of the crop, which has been and is now a very important factor, unless it is offset by much larger yields in the winter wheat belt than are now figured.

That farmers in the winter wheat belt in the southwest will benefit at the expense of those in the spring wheat belt in the northwest was brought out clearly. Mounting prices have gone hand in hand with the destruction of the crop, which has been and is now a very important factor, unless it is offset by much larger yields in the winter wheat belt than are now figured.

That farmers in the winter wheat belt in the southwest will benefit at the expense of those in the spring wheat belt in the northwest was brought out clearly. Mounting prices have gone hand in hand with the destruction of the crop, which has been and is now a very important factor, unless it is offset by much larger yields in the winter wheat belt than are now figured.

That farmers in the winter wheat belt in the southwest will benefit at the expense of those in the spring wheat belt in the northwest was brought out clearly. Mounting prices have gone hand in hand with the destruction of the crop, which has been and is now a very important factor, unless it is offset by much larger yields in the winter wheat belt than are now figured.

That farmers in the winter wheat belt in the southwest will benefit at the expense of those in the spring wheat belt in the northwest was brought out clearly. Mounting prices have gone hand in hand with the destruction of the crop, which has been and is now a very important factor, unless it is offset by much larger yields in the winter wheat belt than are now figured.

That farmers in the winter wheat belt in the southwest will benefit at the expense of those in the spring wheat belt in the northwest was brought out clearly. Mounting prices have gone hand in hand with the destruction of the crop, which has been and is now a very important factor, unless it is offset by much larger yields in the winter wheat belt than are now figured.

That farmers in the winter wheat belt in the southwest will benefit at the expense of those in the spring wheat belt in the northwest was brought out clearly. Mounting prices have gone hand in hand with the destruction of the crop, which has been and is now a very important factor, unless it is offset by much larger yields in the winter wheat belt than are now figured.

That farmers in the winter wheat belt in the southwest will benefit at the expense of those in the spring wheat belt in the northwest was brought out clearly. Mounting prices have gone hand in hand with the destruction of the crop, which has been and is now a very important factor, unless it is offset by much larger yields in the winter wheat belt than are now figured.

That farmers in the winter wheat belt in the southwest will benefit at the expense of those in the spring wheat belt in the northwest was brought out clearly. Mounting prices have gone hand in hand with the destruction of the crop, which has been and is now a very important factor, unless it is offset by much larger yields in the winter wheat belt than are now figured.

That farmers in the winter wheat belt in the southwest will benefit at the expense of those in the spring wheat belt in the northwest was brought out clearly. Mounting prices have gone hand in hand with the destruction of the crop, which has been and is now a very important factor, unless it is offset by much larger yields in the winter wheat belt than are now figured.

That farmers in the winter wheat belt in the southwest will benefit at the expense of those in the spring wheat belt in the northwest was brought out clearly. Mounting prices have gone hand in hand with the destruction of the crop, which has been and is now a very important factor, unless it is offset by much larger yields in the winter wheat belt than are now figured.

That farmers in the winter wheat belt in the southwest will benefit at the expense of those in the spring wheat belt in the northwest was brought out clearly. Mounting prices have gone hand in hand with the destruction of the crop, which has been and is now a very important factor, unless it is offset by much larger yields in the winter wheat belt than are now figured.

That farmers in the winter wheat belt in the southwest will benefit at the expense of those in the spring wheat belt in the northwest was brought out clearly. Mounting prices have gone hand in hand with the destruction of the crop, which has been and is now a very important factor, unless it is offset by much larger yields in the winter wheat belt than are now figured.

That farmers in the winter wheat belt in the southwest will benefit at the expense of those in the spring wheat belt in the northwest was brought out clearly. Mounting prices have gone hand in hand with the destruction of the crop, which has been and is now a very important factor, unless it is offset by much larger yields in the winter wheat belt than are now figured.

That farmers in the winter wheat belt in the southwest will benefit at the expense of those in the spring wheat belt in the northwest was brought out clearly. Mounting prices have gone hand in hand with the destruction of the crop, which has been and is now a very important factor, unless it is offset by much larger yields in the winter wheat belt than are now figured.

That farmers in the winter wheat belt in the southwest will benefit at the expense of those in the spring wheat belt in the northwest was brought out clearly. Mounting prices have gone hand in hand with the destruction of the crop, which has been and is now a very important factor, unless it is offset by much larger yields in the winter wheat belt than are now figured.

That farmers in the winter wheat belt in the southwest will benefit at the expense of those in the spring wheat belt in the northwest was brought out clearly. Mounting prices have gone hand in hand with the destruction of the crop, which has been and is now a very important factor, unless it is offset by much larger yields in the winter wheat belt than are now figured.

That farmers in the winter wheat belt in the southwest will benefit at the expense of those in the spring wheat belt in the northwest was brought out clearly. Mounting prices have gone hand in hand with the destruction of the crop, which has been and is now a very important factor, unless it is offset by much larger yields in the winter wheat belt than are now figured.

That farmers in the winter wheat belt in the southwest will benefit at the expense of those in the spring wheat belt in the northwest was brought out clearly. Mounting prices have gone hand in hand with the destruction of the crop, which has been and is now a very important factor, unless it is offset by much larger yields in the winter wheat belt than are now figured.

That farmers in the winter wheat belt in the southwest will benefit at the expense of those in the spring wheat belt in the northwest was brought out clearly. Mounting prices have gone hand in hand with the destruction of the crop, which has been and is now a very important factor, unless it is offset by much larger yields in the winter wheat belt than are now figured.

That farmers in the winter wheat belt in the southwest will benefit at the expense of those in the spring wheat belt in the northwest was brought out clearly. Mounting prices have gone hand in hand with the destruction of the crop, which has been and is now a very important factor, unless it is offset by much larger yields in the winter wheat belt than are now figured.

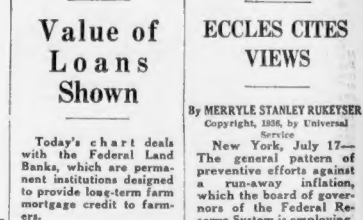

That farmers in the winter wheat belt in the southwest will benefit at the expense of those in the spring wheat belt in the northwest was brought out clearly. Mounting prices have gone hand in hand with the destruction of the crop, which has been and is now a very important factor, unless it is offset by much larger yields in the winter wheat belt than are now figured.

That farmers in the winter wheat belt in the southwest will benefit at the expense of those in the spring wheat belt in the northwest was brought out clearly. Mounting prices have gone hand in hand with the destruction of the crop, which has been and is now a very important factor, unless it is offset by much larger yields in the winter wheat belt than are now figured.

FEDERAL
Loans
Shown

FEDERAL
Loans
Shown

Today's chart deals with the Federal and Banks, which are permanent institutions designed to provide long-term farm mortgage credit to farmers.

These banks, which there are 12, were established in 1917 under the Federal Farm Loan Act. They may make loans only on security of first mortgages on farm land.

Furthermore, loans cannot exceed 50 per cent of the appraised normal value of the land to be mortgaged, plus 10 per cent of the appraised value of the permanent improvements.

Interest rates on Federal Loans may not exceed by more than 1 per cent the interest rate on the farm loan bonds that were first issued by the bank. The interest rate on December 31, 1935, was 4 per cent.

In order to provide credit in cases where the borrower is involved, or to refinance individuals too large to be handled by the Federal Land Banks, Land Bank commissioner loans were provided. These loans are similar in nature to the Federal Land Bank loans, with the exception that they accept first and second mortgages as security. Loans may be secured to cover all previous mortgages and indebtedness up to 75 per cent of the appraised normal value of the land.

Both the federal land banks and land bank commissioner loans are now financed from the Federal Farm Loan Corporation established in 1934. The federal land banks act as agents for the land bank commissioner.

The volume shown on the chart shows the value of loans made by the Federal Farm Loan Corporation in 1935. Loans rose to $70,771,921.31 in 1935, from $70,771,921.31 in 1934.

The volume shown on the chart shows the value of loans made by the Federal Farm Loan Corporation in 1935. Loans rose to $70,771,921.31 in 1935, from $70,771,921.31 in 1934.

The volume shown on the chart shows the value of loans made by the Federal Farm Loan Corporation in 1935. Loans rose to $70,771,921.31 in 1935, from $70,771,921.31 in 1934.

The volume shown on the chart shows the value of loans made by the Federal Farm Loan Corporation in 1935. Loans rose to $70,771,921.31 in 1935, from $70,771,921.31 in 1934.

The volume shown on the chart shows the value of loans made by the Federal Farm Loan Corporation in 1935. Loans rose to $70,771,921.31 in 1935, from $70,771,921.31 in 1934.

The volume shown on the chart shows the value of loans made by the Federal Farm Loan Corporation in 1935. Loans rose to $70,771,921.31 in 1935, from $70,771,921.31 in 1934.

The volume shown on the chart shows the value of loans made by the Federal Farm Loan Corporation in 1935. Loans rose to $70,771,921.31 in 1935, from $70,771,921.31 in 1934.

The volume shown on the chart shows the value of loans made by the Federal Farm Loan Corporation in 1935. Loans rose to $70,771,921.31 in 1935, from $70,771,921.31 in 1934.

The volume shown on the chart shows the value of loans made by the Federal Farm Loan Corporation in 1935. Loans rose to $70,771,921.31 in 1935, from $70,771,921.31 in 1934.

The volume shown on the chart shows the value of loans made by the Federal Farm Loan Corporation in 1935. Loans rose to $70,771,921.31 in 1935, from $70,771,921.31 in 1934.

The volume shown on the chart shows the value of loans made by the Federal Farm Loan Corporation in 1935. Loans rose to $70,771,921.31 in 1935, from $70,771,921.31 in 1934.

The volume shown on the chart shows the value of loans made by the Federal Farm Loan Corporation in 1935. Loans rose to $70,771,921.31 in 1935, from $70,771,921.31 in 1934.

The volume shown on the chart shows the value of loans made by the Federal Farm Loan Corporation in 1935. Loans rose to $70,771,921.31 in 1935, from $70,771,921.31 in 1934.

The volume shown on the chart shows the value of loans made by the Federal Farm Loan Corporation in 1935. Loans rose to $70,771,921.31 in 1935, from $70,771,921.31 in 1934.

The volume shown on the chart shows the value of loans made by the Federal Farm Loan Corporation in 1935. Loans rose to $70,771,921.31 in 1935, from $70,771,921.31 in 1934.

The volume shown on the chart shows the value of loans made by the Federal Farm Loan Corporation in 1935. Loans rose to $70,771,921.31 in 1935, from $70,771,921.31 in 1934.

The volume shown on the chart shows the value of loans made by the Federal Farm Loan Corporation in 1935. Loans rose to $70,771,921.31 in 1935, from $70,771,921.31 in 1934.

The volume shown on the chart shows the value of loans made by the Federal Farm Loan Corporation in 1935. Loans rose to $70,771,921.31 in 1935, from $70,771,921.31 in 1934.

The volume shown on the chart shows the value of loans made by the Federal Farm Loan Corporation in 1935. Loans rose to $70,771,921.31 in 1935, from $70,771,921.31 in 1934.

The volume shown on the chart shows the value of loans made by the Federal Farm Loan Corporation in 1935. Loans rose to $70,771,921.31 in 1935, from $70,771,921.31 in 1934.

The volume shown on the chart shows the value of loans made by the Federal Farm Loan Corporation in 1935. Loans rose to $70,771,921.31 in 1935, from $70,771,921.31 in 1934.

